WAR POWERS TO AID IN CASE OF STRIKE IS PLAN

President Meets With Cabinet to Consider Plans

LABOR BOARD ACTS

Hoover Plans to Put Trucks to Work All Over Nation

Plans for the federal government to deal with the threatened rail strike were revealed today in Chicago and Washington. At Washington President Harding and his cabinet considered a resort to war powers if the rail strike was carried out.

Sitting in Chicago. the railroad labor board ordered rail executives and union chiefs to appear before the board next Wednesday. In the meantime no men are to be ordered out and no further wage cuts put into effect.

Railroad brotherhood chiefs arrived in Cleveland today after the breakup of the mediation meeting with the rail labor board in Chicago and immediately see about perfecting plans to make the big strike a complete success. The rail labor board members, remaining in Chicago, said they did not know what the next move would be.

Meanwhile, Secretary of Commerce Hoover was organizing fleets of motor trucks to move food and necessities in event of a tieup, railroads were advertising for strikebreakers, and employees of the International and Great Northern railroad in Texas made ready to walk out tomorrow, the "preliminary strike" having been authorized by the brotherhood chiefs.

GERMAN SCIENTIST DECLARES CANCER SOURCE FOUND

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A German scientist claims to have discovered the definite origin of cancer, the mystery disease which has defied science. Dr. Franz Kopsch, Berlin university, has informed friends in this country that while experimenting from frogs he accidentally discovered that cancer was transmitted from a larva of the earth carried by angle worms.

Dr. H. A. Haubold, New York medical scientist and friend of the Berlin professor, is now directing a series of experiments in New York laboratories through which it is hoped a practical method of prevention of cancer may be obtained.

"I cannot predict that this work will result in the finding of the way to cure cancer—except perhaps in the early stages," Dr. Haubold said today. "But this discovery of origin is certainly a great step taken toward the solution of the mystery. It, at least, throws a little light of fact through the misty air of theories. This discovery has been proven. It is a fact—not a theory.

"Dr. Kopsch, while experimenting with frogs in Berlin, ordered about 50 of them fed with house flies, angleworms and lettuce lice. Several of the frogs died and the doctor was astounded to find they showed exact symptoms of tumor. On investigation he learned they died of cancer. It was the true destructive cancerous growth. One followed the other in all parts of the body. This proved emphatically it was cancer."

WHITE ASKS DEED; COUNCIL DENIES

Harry C. White appeared before the council sitting as a committee of the whole last night after the regular meeting of the council and asked that the deed to certain property at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard, given to the city for street improvements by himself be returned. He was informed that inasmuch as the deed has already been recorded it could not be returned, but the council agreed to take action and have the improvement started at once.

The street work will cost the city about $300, and will be paid for out of the general fund. It was the original intention of the councilmen to do the work and have it paid for out of the improvement district fund. This plan was abolished when Mr. White insisted that some action be taken on the matter.

MOON IS OFF

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The moon is slightly off its proper path and 12 miles ahead of its schedule, Astronomer Crommelin of Greenwich Observatory announced today. A study of this week's eclipse shows the moon to be out of line, probably due to some magnetic, unknown force, he said.

Henry James Says Abusing Railroads Is Quite a Habit

Abusing the railroads is a habit, says Henry James tonight in his comment on the editorial page. And in his very able way he handles this subject with consideration for both sides and in conclusion says: "In discussing even such a wicked institution as a railroad, it is well to be fair."

This quotation from Mr. James can be applied to the entire editorial page of this paper. Not that it is a wicked institution but that it tries to be fair.

From the pen of James W. Foley, poet-humorist and philosopher, you get the angle of a man with a vision, and a great consuming love for humanity. Henry James is analytical and Dr. Frank Crane is versatile. Could there be a finer combination?

This evening Dr. Crane writes about "H. H."—Harding, Hughes and Hoover, journalist, lawyer and engineer.

Mr. Foley in "The Listening Post," tells of the scale of real value and he does it so cleverly, so earnestly and so truthfully that it causes one to speculate whether he would move the scales before Exact Justice.

On the editorial page tonight you will find something about summer furs and the problem of the youthful criminal. There is an old poem, too. You will recall it. It starts, "Little drops of water—" you know it well. It will do you good to read it again.

DR. BROWN RETURNS FROM SACRAMENTO

Dr.H. V. Brown returned Thursday from Sacramento where he went to attend the annual meeting of the state board of medical examiners. The board had a sad experience in the sudden death of one of its members, Dr. A. J. Scott of Los Angeles, who expired Sunday morning while walking around the Capitol grounds with Mrs. Scott. Members of the board adjourned business sessions out of respect to theid dead comrade, but the examinatoins had to continue.

An adjourned meeting to complete the business will be held next month and in the meantime Governor Stephens will appoint some physician to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Scott. The appointment is for four years. Dr. Brown is serving his third term.

SOCIETY MATRON OPENS SHOP

Mrs. Richard Peabody, Mrs.

Real happiness is not to be found in attending teas and dances. Doing honest work is the sum of all happiness. These sentiments have inspired Mrs. Richard Peabody, popular member of New York society, to enter the business world by opening a gown shop in New York. Mrs. Peabody is the latest of several well-known society women to "enter the trade."

WIFE OF NOTORIOUS SAFE CRACKER IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT

Slashes Wrists with Razor Blade Ater Funeral of Husband

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Charles Reiser, wife of the most notorious safe cracker in the middle west, tried to follow her husband in death today when she attempted to end her life by slashing her wrists and throat with a razor blade. Mrs. Reiser attempted suicide in the undertaking parlor of Joseph Wilder following her husband's funeral. Her condition is serious.

Reiser shot and killed himself with a pistol his wife smuggled in to him at the hospital where he was taken after his body was riddled with bullets in an underworld gang war. Police held his wife in connection with Reiser's death but she was released later. Reiser was reputed to be worth a half million dollars.

DEMAND RELEASE

PARIS, Oct. 21.—(9:40 a. m.)—Ten thousand communists in a great mass meeting here tonight demanded release of Sacco and Vanzetti, the radicals who are held in jail in Massachusetts, U. S. A., charged with murder. Hundreds of police were assembled in the side streets. They made no attempt to interfere with the demonstration but were ready to prevent the communists from marching on the American embassy.

MARY GARDEN IS TO WED SAYS HEAD OF CHICAGO OPERA

Tells Reporters Oil King is Man She Selected for Mate

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Mary Garden, wreathed in smiles and wrapped in silver fox and squirrel skins, returned today on the Aquitania with the exclusive announcement to the United Press that she is going to be married.

"Just say the bridegroom will be a certain oil king and the wedding will take place in America," was all she would offer in explanation.

Immediately afterward she set at rest the rumor that she has severed her connection with the Chicago Opera company by saying she would not only direct their affairs in 1922, but would continue to hire and discharge any and all artists. Speaking about the seperation between the Harold F. McCormicks, she said:

"I don't believe it. Live apart? What of it? When I am married we will probably live apart, too, for the sake of domestic happiness."

DENVER, Oct. 21.—A telegram received by police here today from the Sheriff at Wray, stated that the bank at Vernon, a small town near there was robbed of $50,000 in notes and negotiable securities last night by two men. One hundred dollars in cash was obtained, according to the message. The bandits escaped in a motor car.

HOUSE FOF NEGRO IS CAUSE OF MEETING THIS EVENING

Glendale Ave People Resent Action o Owner Who Rents to Negro

A call has been issued by the Glendale Avenue Improvement Association to attend a meeting tonight in the city hall at 8 o'clock. Several important questions will be discussed, chief among them the question, "Shall the Salt Lake Railroad continue to use Glendale avenue as a freight right-of-way?"

According to members of the association the use of Glendale avenue as a freight right-of-way is a detriment to the property along the street. Another question to be discussed is, "Shall the Salt Lake Railroad be electrified and give passenger service in return for the privilege of using Glendale avenue as a right-of-way?"

The main question of the evening, however, will be the discussion of the intention of Albert Spohr, proprietor of the Spohr Drug Store on the northwest corner of Brand Boulevard and Broadway, of building a house on Colorado street between Glendale avenue and Everett to be rented to a negro. The people in the vicinity of the house to be rented to the negro are aroused over the plan and have asked Mr. Spohr why he should rent a house located on a main thoroughfare of the city in one of the best residence sections of the city to a negro. He stated that the man to whom the house would be rented was in his employ and could not afford to pay the rent that was asked in Los Angeles and that he was going to rent the house at a rental that he could afford. According to a report Mr. Spohr was asked why he did not furnish a room over his garage or build a house on the rear of his own lot for his employee instead of erecting a house on Colorado street. According to the report Mr. Spohr said that such an idea was impossible and that he was going to build the house on the Colorado street property and rent it to the negro.

Mrs. Mable L. Tight has been invited to address the meeting and give a review of the early history of transportation to Glendale.

FORTY BUSINESSES REPRESENTED AT FIRST MEETING

Merchants Here Plan to Form Organization for Close Union

Forty enthusiastic Glendale merchants assembled at the chamber of commerce room last night to consider the formation of a merchants association. It was the opinion of all that the time is ripe for an organization of this kind, and everyone backed up his ideas by signing his name "on the dotted line."

Mr. Vandenwater, secretary of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association, gave a talk in which he offered to assist in any way possible the formation of an organization. Mr. Pilling, secretary of the Merchants Association of Everett. Wash., also made an address.

A finance committee consisting of H. S. Webb, chairman; William Moore and C. E. Neale, was appointed. It was stated today that sufficient funds have already been received to insure the success of this organization. A meeting at which permanent officers will be elected will be held in the chamber of commerce room nexe Thursday evening at 7:30.

SAVE HOME BREW IS NOW UP TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The senate will shortly be asked to save home brew. In response to a clamor raised about Prohibition Commissioner Haynes' recent order to end home brewing by stopping the sale of materials and implements required by home brewers, several senators are considering measures to get the issue settled, and among these are:

1—A resolution calling on Haynes to state by what construction of the law he feels himself empowered to enforce this ruling.

2—A set of amendments to the Volstead law defining more specifically and limited more closely the prohibition commissioner's powers.

3.—Complete revision of the law with a view to liberalizing it throughout.

On account of the existing legislative situation, the effort to save home brew may be deferred until the December session. Protests at first appeared to come principally from those business concerns directly affected by the order. In the last few days, however, both congress and Haynes' office have been swamped with protests from indiyidual citizens.

The protests are not limited to the effort to halt home brewing, but cover the whole range of the prohibition enforcement commissioner's activities in various localities.

Wets in congress declare the country is in revolt against the present law, or, at least, against the manner of its enforcement. Many drys are willing that the law should be liberalized.

GLENDALE MEN YOU SHOULD KNOW

DAVID L. GREGG.

David L. Gregg, of Neale & Gregg, hardware dealers is a native of Nevada. He was born in Carson City.

He came to Glendale about 12 years ago from El Paso and since that time has been in the hardware business and prominently identified with the civic life of Glendale. He operated a hardware store in the building occupied at present by the postoffice and sold it to L. W. Bosserman. Later he and his partner, Cliff Neale, bought the business back and have increased it until today it is one of the largest hardware stores in the city. Mr. Gregg is one of the organizers of the Elks' lodge in Glendale and is one of its 27 charter members. He is also a director of the chamber of commerce.

CAPTURE WILSEY NEAR PASADENA

Henry P. Wilsey. alleged forger who escaped from the Glendale jail Wednesday night, was captured last night just east of Pasadena. Chief of Police Martin of Glendale went to Pasadena yesterday and notified authorities that Wilsey was wanted on several charges of forgery and had escaped. Officers were notified to be on the watch for Wilsey and this morning he was captured. He is held in the Pasadena jail and will be brought to Glendale October 25 for a preliminary hearing on a charge of forgery in Glendale.

A strenous effort is being made by the Pasadena police today to make Wilsey tell who assisted him in his escape from the Glendale jail. The manner of his escape was evidence that he had assistance, as a file was found lying on the bunk in the cell occupied by Wilsey. When first captured at his home in Sunland he resisted arrest and the detective had a hand to hand fight with him before putting on the handcuffs.

ENGLAND WILL AID IN CASE OF WARS

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 21.—Should war on the Pacific follow any possible failure of the disarmament conference, England and the United States would act as one nation, Lord Northcliffe, British publisher declared here today. For that reason Lord Northcliffe advised the Philippine Islands to remain under the American flag for their own good.

Northcliffe likened relations between the islands and the United States to the relations between England and Canada. He expressed surprise at the absence of poverty in the islands and declared Philippine schools and hospitals which he had visited were equal to such institutions in the United States and England.

TROOPS COME SOON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Withdrawal of American troops from the Rhine will start in about two weeks, it was learned at the White House today. It is President Harding's intention to bring home the 15,000 men in the little army of occupation gradually.

NAME JACKSON POSTMASTER OF GLENDALE

Word Received in Glendale Last Night of His Selection

FIRST POSTMASTER

Competent to Fill Office Through Years of Business Training

A dispatch from Washington last night announced that D. Ripley Jackson, 1800 South Brand boulevard has been named acting postmaster of Glendale by Postmaster-General Hays. The appointment was made on the recommendation of Representative Lineberger.

The dispatch also stated that all arrangements have been made so that Glendale will become an independent postoffice of the fourth class on December 31. On January 1 it will be raised to it's rightful place as determined by the amount of postal receipts and thereafter free delivery will be resumed.

When notified of his appointment Mr. Jackson said: "I am, of course, delighted to think that I have been honored by the appointment and am honored to think of the strong support I had in my campaign for the office.

"I am going to administer the affairs of the postoffice to the satisfaction of the people and will be accessable to the citizens of Glendale at all times during the business day and at my home in the evening when necessity requires it.

"I will be open to suggestions for the betterment of the service and will exert a constant effort to give satisfactory service in every respect."

Mr. Jackson is well fitted for the office as he is a man of considerable business experience and training. He has been a resident of Glendale the past five years, coming here from West Orange, New Jersey. He will be the city's first postmaster.

In the East Mr. Jackson was in Wall street, engaged in handling private business affairs and doing special accounting and systematizing. He was identified with the business life of Wall street for 20 years. Five years ago he came to Glendale and for one year was engaged in the nursery business. He then retired from active business life.

During the war, Mr. Jackson was active in the service of the United States. He was appointed captain of military instruction by the state and served in Glendale, training men of draft age and preparing them for military service. He passed his final examination for a captaincy in the quartermaster corps on Armistice Day. The cessation of hostilities automatically cancelled his commission.

He is a thirty-second degree Mason and a member of the El Malaikah Shrine. He is also a vestryman of St. Marks church and is its musical director.

Dr. Jessie Russell. whose friends made an active campaign to have her named postmistress, today received a telegram from Congressman Lineberger stating that the appointment of D. Ripley Jackson as acting postmaster was because of the fact that the department requested immediate nomination of an acting postmaster and that Jackson was recommended by W. E. Evans, chairman of the sixty-first district Republican congressional committee. He also stated that a permanent postmaster will be named early next year in accordance with civil service rules and declared that he would give Dr. Russell's candidacy fair consideration if her name is among the list of eligibles. Dr. Russell stated this afternoon that she will not be a candidate for the office.

VINCENT WHITNEY HAS A WILD PARTY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Jail did not put an end to the playfulness of Vincent Whitney, nationally known sportsman and heir to a large fortune, police said today after they had arrested him at the close of an alleged "wild party" in an apartment house.

"Who dares to arrest Vincent Whitney?" police said their prisoner shouted as they took him to the city jail and locked him up charged with disturbing the peace. When cries from his cell were not answered, Whitney was alleged to have smashed a faucet and to have flooded his and adjoining cells.

Police plumbers fixed the faucet but Whitney, they said, found another and smashed that. As a result, police announced, he was moved to the "dungeon" or "dark cell" until he reconsiders. Mrs. Carol Corrigan was arrested with Whitney.

BRIAND DEAMNDS FULL ENDORSEMENT

PARIS, Oct. 21.—"I will not go to Washington with half your confidence or a small majority," Premier Aristide Briand told the chamber of deputies today in his long awaited speech concerning the forthcoming limitation of arms conference. "I must be invested with moral authority. I want sufficient votes so they may know the whole of France is speaking."

CONTRACT AWARDS BY CITY COUNCIL

The unexpected happened last night at the meeting of the city council. The council arrived promptly at 6 o'clock for the meeting of the committee of the whole, transacted their business and met in the council chamber at 7:15. The regular business was transacted in one hour and 15 minutes, adjourning at 8:30. The meeting was the first to be held under the new ordinance changing the time for council meeting from 8 p. m. to 7 p. m.

The first business transacted was opening bids for cast iron pipe and bids for the Orange Grove Avenue improvement work. The bid of the American Cast Iron Co. for pipe was accepted. Peter L. Ferry was awarded the contract for improvement work on Orange Grove avenue.

The application of the Fanset Dye Works for permission to install machinery to be used for dry cleaning was referred to City Manager Reeves for investigation and to report at the next meeting. According to the request the dye worxs will install it in a separate fireproof building at the rear of the establishment at 110 East Broadway and all of the fire regulations will be complied with.

PRIVATE CAMP FOR AUTOISTS DENIED

A communication from F. E. Clennin asking permission to operate a private auto camping ground at 920 East Palmer street was read at the meeting of the city council last night. Clennin stated that he had purchased four acres of land and is prepared to erect small cottages and sanitary conveniences for campers.

A report by City Health Officer Dr. J. E. Eckles, regarding the proposed camp ground, was read, which stated that the owner of the property had not complied with the state requirements regarding the installation of cesspools and also recommended that the permit be withheld until these requirements are met.

The request was referred to City Manager Reeves with instructions to notify the applicant of the state requirement had not been complied with.

DENY BLACKSMITH PERMIT TO BUILD

A permit to erect a sheet iron building, to be used as a blacksmith shop, next to the Tropico hotel on San Fernando road was denied by the city council last night. While the front of the property is in Fire District No. 1, the rear of the property, where the shop is to be erected is not in the district and the permit could not be given on the grounds that it did not comply with fire regulations.

It was denied on the grounds that the property was not in the industrial district and that a blacksmith shop is an industry. It was also indicated that a factor in the refusal was the fact that a blacksmith shop built next to a hotel would be a menace.

ASKS PROTECTION FROM WEEDS—GOPHER

Kate Shepardson communicated with the city council last night and asked if there is an ordinance whereby improved property can be protected from the spreading of weeds and the onslaught of gophers on unimproved property. The communication stated that there were several vacant lots adjoining her property and that no care is being taken to prevent the growth of weeds and that seeds from the vacant property were blowing onto improved land. She also stated that gophers are making inroads on her land from the vacant property. She asked that if there was an ordinance forcing the owners of vacant property to keep the weeds cut and their property free from gophers that it be enforced.

The first league debate which will be between Glendale and Hollywood will take place November 18, and the question debated will be, "Resolved, that the United States should repeal the Panama Canal toll on American ships."

Temporary teams selected are: Robert Fry and Dale Woods, affirmative; Kathleen Campbell and Frank Balthis, negative. Other teams will be named and a tryout given to determine who will represent the school November 18.

MRS. SOUTHARD STATE' SCASE ENDED

TWIN FALLS, Ida., Oct. 21.—"I'm glad the prosecution is done, and that the witnesses who will testify in my favor will now have a chance to be heard," Mrs. Lyda Southard told the United Press today. "It's been very tiresome listening to all this long-drawn-out testimony every day," she added. "I know my witnesses will convince the jury of the absolute falsity of all these charges."

IRISH RUPTURE IS RUMORED LONDON

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Rumors of an Irish rupture were rife here today when the peace conference adjourned after a brief session. They will probably meet again next Monday. No official reason for the abrupt ending of what was expected to be a considerable session was given out. It was rumored disagreements over the alleged breaking of the truce had arisen.

ST. MARK'S GUILD MET THURSDAY

Between 25 and 30 members of St. Mark's Guild met at the church Thursday afternoon at 1:30 for work in connection with the bazaar to be held November 19. At 3 o'clock a business session was called by the president, Mrs. B. L. Holbrook, at which plans for the bazaar and other matters of interest were discussed. Until the bazaar takes place the hall will be opened at 1:30 every Thursday afternoon for work of like character.

HALLOWE'EN TEA FOR B-7 MOTHERS

Mrs. F. W. Chambers, 736 South Glendale avenue, entertained the mothers of the B-7 class, section 1 of Intermediate school, at a Hallowe'en tea Thursday afternoon. There were about 41 ladies invited, including Mrs. Wm. Kulp, the association president of Intermediate and Miss Chase, the class teacher.

The afternoon was spent in discussion as regards spending money for children and about their helping in the home. Mrs. W. A. Glade donated a number of aprons to the cooking class. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

THURSDAY CLUB HELD SESSION

The Thursday Afternoon club which is considering a change of name and perhaps a change in its meeting day, took a new lease of life yesterday at a purely social meeting held in the former home of Mrs. A. L. Bancroft on Brand and Laurel, now occupied by Mrs. Hartzell. Forty new members were enrolled.

The afternoon was in charge of the entertainment committee, Mrs. Bancroft and Mrs. Kemper Campbell, the lady last named introducing Miss Ann Kavanaugh, the popular club entertainer, who gave a series of readings and character sketches in a variety of dialects which greatly delighted an audience numbering not less than 70 ladies.

A decision was reached to hold two club meetings a month, one a business session, the other for entertainment and sociability. Mrs. E. V. Bacon is the president of the organization.

DRAMA SECTION WITH MRS. ANDREWS

Members of the Drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. L. Andrews and had a pleasant excursion to her new home on Providencia street. They assembled at the residence of the curator, Mrs. R. E. Chase, and from there went in a body.

The program of the afternoon included the reading of the first two acts of "Quality Street" (Barrie) by different members of the section.

Arrangements for the three one-act plays to be given by the section were then discussed and committee chairmen appointed as follows: Mrs. A. J. Findlay, tickets; Mrs. R. K. Snow, printing; Mrs. Mabel Ocker, patron's tickets.

A change in the meeting day from Thursday to Friday and the section will hereafter assemble the first and third Friday of each month. Several queen tickets for the Legion contest were sold.

Members present were Mesdames R. S. Chase, W. L. Andrews, R. Bentley, A. E. Bode, Colin Cable, Alma Gibbs, Max Green, A. M. Hunt, Harry Lockwood, W. F. Nash, L. G. Sherman, R. K. Snow, Cameron Thom, A. P. Findlay, Bert Woodard, W. F. Nash, Jr., Albert Pearce, Bert Cline, Charles A. Parker, and Charles Meadows.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. J. Roger Bentley, November 4, and at that and subsequent sessions a few moments will be given by the curator to the history of the development of the drama in the different nations, the theme November 4 being "The Orient," beginning with China.

BROADWAY P.-T. A. HAS GOOD PROGRAM

The attendance on the meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teachers' Association held Thursday afternoon, was gratifyingly large and furnished an audience very appreciative of the program given by pupils of Mrs. Evelyn Labadie.

It opened with a Jack Tar drill, followed by "Dominique" (Drummond), by Ralph Camargo in which he did excellent work. Then came a little play entitled, "The Daring Bicycler," in which about five pupils took part. There was some pretty dancing by the star of the cast, Rosamund Burwell, who was supported by Ralph Camargo, Bell and Robert Rhoades. The final number was a little French Canadian sketch, in costume, entitled, "Little Bateest" given by Jim Rhoades who was several times recalled. All the numbers won warm aplause.

The meeting opened with a short business session over which the president, Mrs. Francis Wilkinson, presided. It closed with the serving of refreshments.

MRS. GILBERT IS HOSTESS THURSDAY

Mrs. Richard Gilbert, 622 South Columbus, was hostess yesterday at a pretty lavender and white luncheon at which covers were laid for 11 neighbors and friends.

Mrs. Philp of Los Angeles, daughter of the hostess, was the out of town guest. Following the luncheon the ladies spent a pleasant social afternoon over their needlework.

P. E. O. CHAPTER MET YESTERDAY

Chapter C. J. of the P.E.O. met yesterday with Mrs. H. V. Brown for a short business session followed by a social hour during which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Twelve of the sixteen members were present and Mrs. Lizzie Hayward was the assisting hostess.

ATTEND SESSION AT ALEXANDRIA

Mrs. John Everson, who represents the Children's Hospital division of the philanthropy department of the Tuesday Afternoon club, in company with the president, Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, attended a luncheon at Hotel Alexandria grill Thursday, given in the interest of the hospital, especially the work of the salvage department. Interesting reports were made and addresses by physicians in charge of orthopeadic work.

The reports showed that $12,000 towards the support of the hospital was contributed last year by the salvage department of which two Glendale women have charge—Misses Minnie Moulton and Ellen Churchill. It appeared that tinfoil is a large source of revenue. As a result of that meeting Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Everson have decided to place boxes in conspicuous places in Glendale into which citizens can drop the tinfoil wrappings of gum and tobacco and so help along a worthy cause.

HI "Y" BANQUET WAS VERY INTERESTING

The Hi Y banquet in the bungalow of the Christian Church last night was a big affair. It was unusual in that feminine guests were present, members of the High School cabinet and Mr. and Mrs. George U. Moyse, principal and assistant principal, being present as guests of honor.

The tables were decorated and arranged by the "feed committee" composed of Maynard Toll, Alton Mattice and Arlon McCormick. Grace was returned by Paul Edmonds, secretary of the Hi Y, and the excellent dinner was served by the girls in Mrs. Smith's class in the Christian Sunday school. Dale Wood, president, acted as toastmaster, and covers were laid for 75.

Diners were grouped around a number of tables, the cabinet members sitting at the head table and the following Hi Y leaders presiding at the other tables: Paul L. Hutchinson, Harry Marple, and G. Edwin Murphy.

Following the dinner John Cameron welcomed the cabinet members telling them how glad he and his fellow Hi Y. were to have them as guests, especially mentioning the young ladies, and assuring them that anything the cabinet wanted to "put across" the Hi Y would back one hundred per cent.

The response for the cabinet was made by Miss Doris Packer, who assured her hosts that she and the other cabinet members were very glad to know a group of such fine young men were backing them in their endeavors to put the right kind of spirit into Glendale Union High.

Toastmaster Wood then welcomed a delegation of Burbank boys and their leader who are just getting their Hi Y under way.

Paul Edmonds told what the Hi Y stands for, mentioning clean living, clean speech, clean athletics and clean scholarship.

Paul Hutchinson, president of the student body told how the Hi Y can be of service to his organization.

Mrs. George U. Moyse followed with a little speech in which she suggested ways in which the Hi Y can help the girls of the school.

Throughout the evening at intervals, excellent jazz music had been provided by Ralph Van Hoorebeke's orchestra, but at this point the Hi Y sprung the surprise of the program by introducing a colored quartet from the Monrovia Hi Y. These boys have fine voices and made a great hit with their songs.

Mr. Moyse then mentioned ways in which the Hi Y can help the faculty and said it is glad to take advantage of the help that could be given by such a large group of boys in maintaining in Glendale High the fine spirit that has always characterized the school.

The chief speaker of the evening, George R. Andrews, was then introduced and told of the prison work of Volunteers of America. He held the close attention of his audience and made the boys and girls realize their own opportunities in comparison with those of men and women who have gone wrong and who can be restored only by seeking divine Delp.

Arlon McCormick then thanked the young ladies, the orchestra, the colored quartet, and every one who had taken part in making the evening such a success.

Rev. Clifford Cole offered a few concluding remarks and pronounced the benediction.

SCHOOL CAFETERIA WAS DISCUSSED

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Columbus avenue P.-T. A. yesterday afternoon at which the establishment of a school cafeteria was the chief theme of discussion.

Preceding the session was a meeting of the executive board conducted by the president, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, at which the resignation of the vice-president, Mrs. C. O. Piercy was accepted with regret.

At the business session of the entire association the prize promised last year for the best attendance of mothers, was awarded to Miss Ball's room. It was a Victrola record, and members voted to offer a prize for this year's best attendance. Reports of officers were received and tickets for the card party to be given under the auspices of the association at the home of Mrs. John Robert White, were distributed.

The round-table on hot school luncheons was then opened by Mrs. C. H. Pendleton, chairman of programs, who introduced Miss Ellen Hanson, head of the Domestic Science department of Glendale High. Miss Hanson pointed out how essential it is that children should have plenty of milk and hot food at noon. After general discussion a committee was appointed of which Mrs. Tedford was chairman and Mesdames Pendleton and Torrey members, to investigate what it will cost to fit up the unused basement room for a cafeteria and to hire a woman to prepare and serve the lunches. This committee is to report at the next meeting.

Mrs. A. A. Barton will give a talk on P.-T. A. work at the next meeting which will be followed by a question box. This year an effort is being made to get mothers and teachers to express opinions on what is best for children in school to see if the two cannot get together on some basis satisfactory to all.

MRS. CHAMBERS WAS HOSTESS TO MOTHERS

Mothers of B 7-1 class of the Intermediate school were entertained Thursday from 2 to 5 at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Chambers, 736 South Glendale avenue, Mrs. W. C. Wattles being an assisting hostess. The ladies entertained were Mesdames C. A. Harshberger, J. J. Campbell, Josephine Fifield, Roscoe Aleshire, A. W. Glades, Mabel Homer, and the mother of Mrs. Chambers—Mrs. Stiles.

The same afternoon Mrs. W. S. Ingram of 336 Broadway, called together her committee of mothers of B 8-1 of the same school, to arrange for the entertainment of all the mothers of children in that grade. The committee includes Mesdames A. H. Chapman, R. L. McCourt, James H. Searles and H. Roberts, all of whom were present.

The association president, Mrs. Kulp, was a visitor at each meeting and reported the desire of the faculty that the parents visit the schools and acquaint themselves with the work there going forward. At the first meeting she asked for donations of aprons for girls who help serve the lunches at the school cafeteria, and was promised all the aprons needed.

These room mothers and their assisting committees expect to keep all the mothers closely in touch with all the winter activities of the school and P.-T. A. The chief event of interest just now is "Fathers' Night" which will take place next month.

MRS. BONDEAUX IS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Heloise Bondeaux, 306 North Central avenue, entertained Thursday afternoon at auction bridge. Mrs. A. A. MacIntyre assisted her. The house and table decorations were in Hallowe'en colors, as were the refreshments. Mrs. K. Sooy won first prize for high score and second prize was awarded Mrs. Draper, both being dainty tea aprons.

Mrs. Bondeaux's guests included Mrs. F. J. Rogers, Mrs. Draper, Mrs. Harry Powers, Jr., Mrs. H. A. McPherson, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Harry Franklin, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Mrs. K. Sooy, Mrs. Lee D. Childers, Miss Ann Morgan, Miss Miess, and Mrs. E. E. East.

GAIL THOMAS WAS BIG MAN THURSDAY

Gail Thomas, 339 West Milford street, was honor guest Thursday afternoon at a charming Hallowe'en party given by his mother, Mrs. G. E. Thomas in honor of his fifth birthday. The house was beautifully decorated in the Hallowe'en colors and the dining room was especially effective, having black cats and bats hanging from the ceiling and two big clowns on either side of the table. The centerpiece was made of black witches and goblins heads holding yellow candles which furnished the only light, giving a very "spooky" effect. The tiny place cards were yellow pumpkins, black cats and witches. Each guest received a favor of a Hallowe'en cap. During the afternoon children's game were played and delicious refreshments served, in which the color scheme of yellow and black was also carried out.

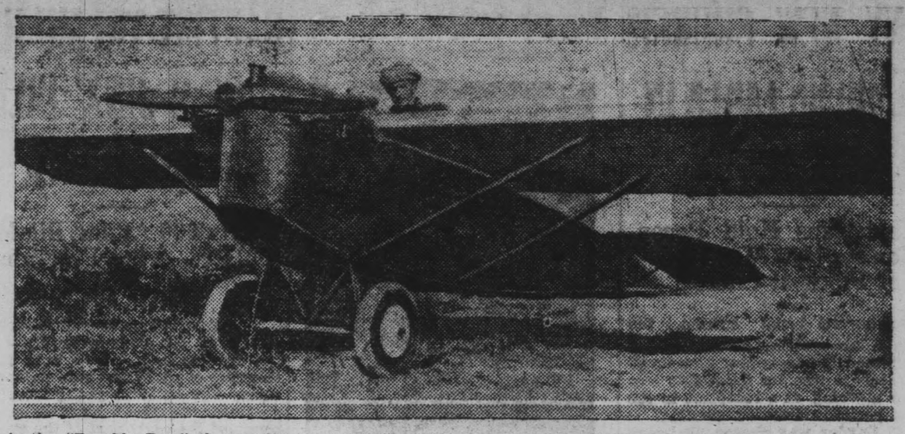
Master Thomas was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. Those who assisted in complimenting him were Lorraine Davies, Geraldine Young, Jean Tyrel, Donald Chapman, Barbara Plumb, Forest Alexander, Richard Tyrel, Teddy Robinson, Wallace Plumb, William McMillan, Mrs. Emma Wagner and Mrs. F. Alexander of Los Angeles, Mrs. Phillip Davies of Pasadena and Mrs. Jack Chapman of Glendale.

There is very little machine work in the making of pianos, nearly every operation being done by hand.

CENTER OF ODD FAIMLY TANGLE

Charles Prince, New York art dealer, has filed suit against Joseph Paterno, his multi-millionaire brother-in-law, for $100,000 for alleged alienation of the affections of Mrs. Alice Prince, Paterno's sister-in-law. Paterno's wife says she has absolute faith in her husband and believes that he is totally innocent of any wrongdoing with her young sister.

Smallest Monoplane in World Can Do Ninety Miles an Hour



Here is the "Bumble Bee," the smallest monoplane in the world. It was built and had its trials at Venice, Cal. The "Bumble Bee," which has a wing spread of only 18 feet and is just 14 feet in length, is capable of 90 miles an hour.

GIRL BRIDE JOINS PARENTS IN COURT

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 21.—Ruth Stephenson-Gussman came back into her mother's arms today. The girl, whose desertion of her parents and marriage to Pedro Gussman, a Porto Rico Catholic, precipitated the killing of Father James E. Coyle, Catholic priest, embraced her parents in a crowded courtroom.

The scene was enacted immediately following the recess adjournment of the court where the father, the Rev. Edwin R. Stephenson, is on trial for murder. It followed a pathetic appeal for the minister's acquittal by Attorney Fred Fite. When he finished his address half the courtroom was crying.

The reconcilation was brought on by a reporter of the Birmingham Post, who led the hesitant daughter to her mother.

"Kiss me, darling, if you want to," Mrs. Stephenson told her in a low voice. They embraced.

"Don't you know, darling, that your father loves you. Mother knows. Kiss him, my child."

The big man was crying as his daughter put her arms around him. "My little girl," he sobbed. The scene was broken by the girl's aunt.

"You look a sight with your hair bobbed, Ruth," she said. They left the courtroom separately, Ruth going with her friend, Mrs. T. J. Platt of Loretto, Tenn., where the girl has been a recluse for the last few weeks.

MANY NEW CHURCH MEMBERS TAKEN IN LAST NIGHT

Presbyterians Hold Reception for New Members of Flock at Church

Following its usual custom, the Glendale Presbyterian church publicly welcomed the forty-four new members received into its fellowship last Sunday morning, at a reception in the church parlors Thursday evening.

G. F. Snyder was chosen chairman for the evening by the S-Z division of the membership who had charge of the splendid program which was enjoyed by all present, among the numbers being piano solos beautifully rendered by Miss Isabel Spear, and readings by Miss Anita Fletcher, a talented member of the church, and Miss Alice McCluggage, of Hollywood.

Mrs. T. Weien gave the address of welcome on behalf of the membership and W. A. Horne responded in happy vein in behalf of the new members, his dominant note being, "How best can we, as new members, serve the Master through His church?"

After a roll call of states, interspersed with old-time melodies and songs, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The feeling of amity which pervades the congregation of this church at all times was manifest throughout the entire evening, and the incoming members were quickly made to feel at home among their newly found friends.

Mrs. E. D. Lytle of San Francisco, who has been the house guest for the past two weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, 219 West Chestnut street, leaves today for home in the northern city.

Newest Bathing Costume

Looks lige the Garden of Eden. Leave it to Hollywood. to create something new. Now comes Maryon Aye with a new "Rags" bathing suit. Maryon is a fomer "Follies" girl and served her initial film days under Mack Sennett's silent drama canopy.

Sponges are popularly regarded as a kind of sea plant, but in reality they are the skeletons of a low type of animal.

BAPTIST TRI MU HAD 'HIGH JINX' BILL LAST NIGHT

Nearly 200 Attend Big Meet Here—Fine Program of Events

The entertainment and "high jinx" of the Tri Mu class of the First Baptist Sunday school was held in the church last night and was enjoyed by nearly two hundred young men. The program and short business session occupied the early part of the evening, followed by the stunts.

The principal feature was the address by Countess De Rappe of Russia. In her very pleasing manner the countess showed how fortunate people are who live in America. Europe she says, is filled with grief and sorrow, but America, "my, how different, how wonderful!" She recounted some of her experiences in having all of her property taken from her by the rebelling forces in Russia. How she came to America as a refugee, how she and many of her countrymen have at last found peace in this country. Since coming to America she has heard of the death of several of her kinfolks who were compelled to remain in Russia. Countess de Rappe has had many terrible experiences, but she glories in the prospect of the peace and safety that she feels she has surely found in America.

An exceedingly amsusing description of the "Einstine Theory of Relativity," was given by Richard Smith, while several side-splitting songs and stories were given by R. R. Lockheart, also of Los Angeles. A number of well-rendered selections were offered by a quartet of singers from the Ellis Club of Los Angeles, this consisting of J. Fred Rogers, T. G. McDougal, James L. Travis and M. S. Hauser. Howard Aylsworth was accompanist for this quartet. Several selections were rendered by the high school jazz orchestra. In the business session K. D. Schwendener was elected president of the Tri Mu class, while S. Walker was elected secretary and Charles Rivers, assistant secretary.

At the conclusion of the program those present gathered in the basement, where refreshments consisting of doughnuts, apples and coffee, were served. These were followed by all kinds of stunts, in which the oldest and the youngest participated.

Town Topics

Improvement. A petition signed by A. H. Nichols and other property owners asking for the improvement of East Elk avenue between Everett and Adams streets was read at the council meeting last night, and upon checking was found that it had been signed by every property owner with two exceptions. The city engineer and city attorney were instructed to start the necessary proceedings for the improvement.

Some Booster. City Manager Reeves has made a record as a booster of Glendale. Since coming to this city last August Mr. Reeves has been the direct reason for at least one family moving here every week. Mr. Reeves has kept a record of the families and individuals who have moved to Glendale on his recommendation and points to it with pride.

Comptroller. City Manager Reeves notified the council last night of the appointment of W. C. Wright as deputy comptroller, and the council unanimously approved the appointment.

Gets Permit. Dr. Agnes Hanson's request for a permit to establish a rest home on Colorado street was granted by the city council last night. This request was up last week and resulted in a deadlock. Councilman Stephenson was absent last week. The question came up for final action last night and the deadlock was broken when Councilman Stephenson voted in favor of the permit.

Take New Home.—The beautiful new 5-room bungalow built by L. D. McKeen at 411 Pioneer drive, has just been turned over to the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crosby. Mrs. Crosby is particularly pleased with her complete modern buffet kitchen and will be pleased to show the house to anyone interested.

Forfeits Game.—According to the decision of league referees, South Pasadena forfeits the game it won from Glendale High's team Thursday night because it allowed an ineligible man to play.

Seeks Location.—J. Wiley of Pasadena, was in Glendale this morning with a view of starting an exclusive woman's apparel shop here in the very near future. This step will be taken just as soon as a suitable storeroom has been found.

Three Deer.—Deputy Sheriff R. E. Couts of 230 West Colorado street, accompanied by John Pross, Leo Stanley, George Pross and Sam Cull of Los Angeles, returned Sunday from a very successful deer hunt back of the Santa Suzanna. They brought home three deer between them. They got them just in time, for Saturday ended the deer season.

Hallowe'en Party.—The Junior Music Club is meeting Saturday evening, not Friday, at the home of the president, Miss Veda Knapp, for a Hallowe'en party. Members will come in costumes and masques and a jolly time is expected.

Make Quilts.—Ladies of the Central Christian church had an all-day session yesterday at the church, devoted to the manufacture of quilts and aprons for which they have orders. They have received so many requisitions they say they could be kept busy for several days a week.

At Eagle Rock.—Mrs. C. H. Hutchinson, president, and Mrs. R. E. Chase, curator of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club attended a council of district presidents at Eagle Rock Tuesday afternoon. The principal subject of discussion was the censorship of moving pictures and each president was asked to have a vote on the matter taken in her club and report the result to the district council.

Speaks In City.—Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, president of the Glendale W. C. T. U. was the speaker at the Los Angeles W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon, her theme being, "The Cry of the World."

Here for Good.—B. H. Larrabee, who recently came to Glendale from Kenosha, Wis., has been in the newspaper business for nearly 30 years. He sold out his interests there and came to Burbank where he remained something over a year, returning to Kenosha to start a daily. This he sold recently and has come to Glendale to stay.

Spreading Out.—The Glendale Sheet Metal Works, 127 North Glendale avenue, has been awarded the bid for the installation of a heating plant in the Methodist church at La Mesa, California. La Mesa is located about 15 miles south of San Diego. By this it is evident the Glendale firm is "spreading out" and gathering in work from far and near.

Encourage.—Coach Hayhurst was well pleased with the work of the football team he took to South Pasadena yesterday although they met defeat. They were considerably outclassed in size but they put up a good clean game, and maintained a manly bearing under adversity.

TRICK NUMBERS TO BE ELIMINATED

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Profuse apologies have been made to Western Conference of Universities by the committee on intercollegiate sports of the University of Minnesota for Coach Williams' trick numbering of players in the game with Northwestern. The conference rules this year require that all players be numbered. In the Northwestern game Williams' men carried four curly numbers, such as 3588. 5385 and so, so that it was impossible for spectators to pick out players by their numbers.

In the Ohio game, however, the players were numbered stareing with No. 1 and no player carried more than two numbers. James Paige, chairman of the committee on intercollegiate sports, apologized for the coach's action in a letter to each of the conference schools and said that the university had ben muc embarrassed by Williams' action.

RADIO OPERATOR'S TROUBLES ENDED

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21.—After trials and fourteen months in the county jail here, James W. Anderson, 24-year-old naval radio operator, is free, following his acquittal on the charge of murdering Harry E. Stevens here last year. Anderson's defense was temporary insanity brought on by knowledge of alleged illicit relations between Anderson's girl bride, Lillian, and her foster father, Stevens.

MOONSHINE CRAZED WHITE MEN GO TO BLACK BELT

With Long Knife One Killed By Man Run Amuck Early Today

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—A moonshine crazed white man, armed with a long butcher knife, ran amuck in Chicago's "black belt" early today, killing two persons and wounding a third. In another section of the belt two white men stabbed a negro policeman who attempted to stop an argument in a cabaret. The assailants escaped.

Police reserves and plain clothes men were held in readiness to rush to the belt—scene of the race riots of over a year ago—in case feeling ran high because of the crimes.

Daisy Jackson was the first victim of the booze crazed man. Witnesses said they saw a white man follow her into an alley. Screams were herd and the woman was found dead with her throat cut.

Before the search for the slayer was organized it was reported to police headquarters that a man of the same description had cut the throat of Louise Franklin. She was fatally injured. Later the same man attacked Mannie Williams and killed him. Following Miss Jackson's murder, her sister Suzanne, 8 years old, was missing and could not be found. It was feared by police that the murderer had mutilated and hid her body.

DR. BRUMFIELD BEAT GALLOWS IN CELL DURING NIGHT

ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 21.—Dr. Richard M. Brumfield, convicted murderer, who attempted to commit suicide last night by slashing his neck, will live unless an infection sets in, Dr. Charles V. Wade, county physician, informed the United Press today.

The iron control which had been the marvel of the courtroom during the trial did not forsake Brumfield after his wife had visited him in jail yesterday and he had taken leave of his two brothers.

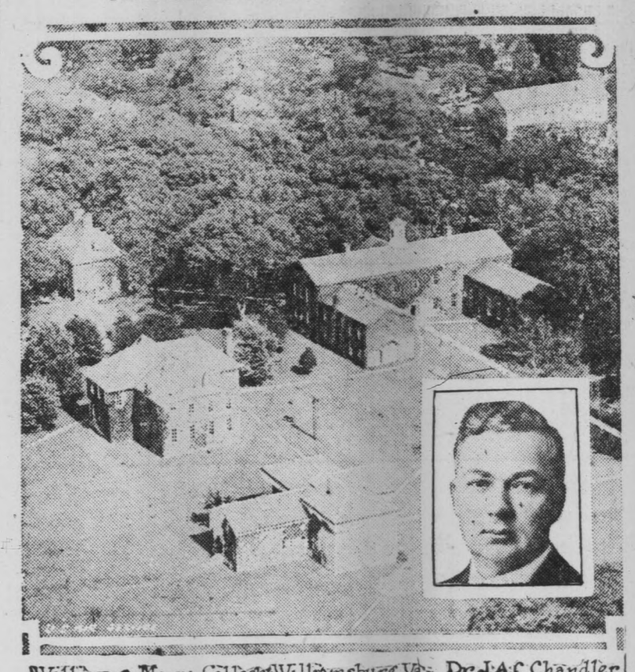
Then the former Roseburg Beau Brummell broke down and wept in terrible grief. All the efforts his wife failed to comfort him but it was not known until last night when Sheriff Starmer found him unconscious upon his cot that he had been so grievously affected. Brunmfield last night was given an opiate, when he failed to sleep, and during one of his periods of unconsciousness, informed the sheriff that he had been shot.

"I saw the flash and heard the report," Brumfield told the officer. Starmer made an effort to have the prisoner tell him where the safety razor blade with which he is supposed to have made the attempt upon his life was hidden. Brumfield was too weak to talk.

According to Dr. Wade, Brumfield may have inflicted his injuries with the sharp crowns on a removable dental bridge taken from his mouth. The convicted dentist's knowledge of the use to which such an instrument could be pue woluld allow this. It was thought at first that Brumfield might have cut himself with a piece of his glasses lense, or a safety razor blade. These theories have been abandoned.

Brumfield's sentence tomorrow may be postponed because of his condition, it was indicated.

AIRPLANE VIEW OF COLLEGE WHERE HARDING MADE ADDRESS THURSDAY



William Mary College, Williamsburg, Va. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Oct 21.—Panoramic view of a portion of the campus and William and Mary College, where President Harding spoke Wednesday, photographed by United States Air Service from an airplane. The large structure in the center is the ancient main building, erected in 1693. Inset shows Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, vice-president of the National Education Assocition, at installation as president of William and Mary President Harding made the principal address.

CODY'S WIDOW DIES AT CODY LAST NIGHT

CODY, Wyo., Oct. 21.—"Buffalo Bill's" widow is dead. Mrs. William F. Cody, wife of the famous western pioneer and Indian fighter, died at her home near here last night after a long illness. She was about 78 years old. "Buffalo Bill" died several years ago and his body was buried on the top of Lookout mountain near Denver, at his request. It is probable that his widow's body will be buried beside that of her husband.

"I suppose you get a great deal of pleasure out of your car?".

"No. I can't say that I do."

"What's the trouble?"

"The car's all right, but Monday is mother's day to drive it; on Tuesday, the girls want it; Wednesday, I promised to let the boy have it, and Friday and Saturday it has to go in for repairs. Sunday, if I am very good they let me drive myself."

FORTUNE IN LIQUOR SEIZED ON OCEAN LINER TODAY

Pitched Battle On When Officers Make Discovery False Panels on Boat

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A quarter of a million dollars worth of drugs and whisky were seized after a desperate pitched battle, when the White Star liner Cretic docked here today.

Three arrests were made by the customs searching squad which boarded the vessel. A lively running fight with some Italians, in which revolver shots were exchanged and chairs and boots used as weapons, resulted in the complete wrecking of the interior of a section of the liner and the discovery of morphine, heroin, opium and cocaine and a quantity of whisky.

The Cretic arrived here from Italian ports. Illicit cargo was found stowed away behind false panels and sixty bottles of whisky were buried in the coal hold. Ten bottles were said to have been found in the captain's cabin. One hundred Bird of Paradise plumes were among the loot seized by the customs men.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Love, their sons Wendell and Buddy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Schaffer and son George, Jr., motored to Lang Sunday and visited relatives.

Mrs. M. M. Gale, 108 North Everett street, is spending several days with friends in os Angeles.

PRETTY GIRLS CONTRIBUTE MUCH TO SUCCESS OF BIG SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS

In the Sells-Floto circus, "second largest show on earth," which exhibits in Prager Park, Los Angeles, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 24, 25 and 26, the circus girl comes into her own. In this big show, it is announced, comedy and clever young women are utilized in nearly all the notable acts. The five herds of acting elephants were trained by girls, and these girls present their big pupils in the three rings and upon the track. In the aerial and acrobatic acts the circus girl is also very much in evidence. In one act thirty girls present an aerial ballet, all hanging by their teeth. And there are over two hundred young women in the big arenic displays.

The arenic performance of the Sells-Floto circus is introduced with a gorgeously-costumed spectacle. "The Birth of the Rainbow," and in this, also, the success of the display is largely due to the number, beauty and handsome costuming of the girls.

QUEER LOVE TANGLE LANDED WIFE IN JAIL WITH HUBBY

Much Married Man Says He Loves His Second Wife the Most

SEATTLE, Oct. 21.—"I don't want Raleigh to go to the penitentiary for me," wailed pretty Mrs. Estelle Chaffin Applegate today as she peered from behind the bars in the county jail. Her husband, Raleigh Applegate, occupies a cell in another part of the jail, charged with bigamy on the complain of the "latest" Mrs. Applegate.

The queer love tangle is now in process of unraveling under the direction of Chief Prosecutor Malcolm Douglas. Applegate is alleged to have married Estelle Chaffin last August, deserting his wife and two children in Los Angeles and returning to them after a month's honeymoon here with his pretty bride.

When Applegate was arrested in Los Angeles recently by Seattle detectives he kissed his family goodbye and boarded the Seattle train. The warrant for his arrest was signed by his Seattle bride last Setember when she told a city detective to "ask Raleigh to come back to me and tell him I love him." Tuesday Mrs. Applegate II was informed by Douglas she must appear as complaining witness against her husband.

"I can't condemn Raleigh for what he has done and I won't pass judgment until I have talked with him," she cried. "I can't understand why they would lock me up. I have committed no crime." Mrs. Applegate is held in jail by the prosecutor.

"She is my legal wife." Applegate stated in commenting upon his Seattle bride's position. "She is beautiful and good. I wish you would send her some candy in my name." The marriage took place August 6 when Applegate came to Seattle by appointment, meeting his fiancee, who came here from Billings, Mont., for the wedding.

TUJUNGA CHAMBER JOINS AFFILIATED

Treasurer Reports All Debts Paid—$200 in Strong Box

TUJUNGA, Oct. 21.—At the Tuesday meeting of the chamber of commerce it was decided that the organization will join the Affiliated Chambers of the San Fernando Valley. The treasurer reported that the chamber had 307 members. more than $200 in the treasury and that all debts were paid.

The committee on telephone reported that the attempt to secure all night service, had failed, for the present at least as the company required at least 300 new subscribers be obtained before they would do anything. This report was referred back to the committee with instructions to see what could be done along other lines to secure night service.

The committee on incorporation reported and the report was accepted. It was decided to hold a special meeting on Monday night to discuss the matter of incorporation.

MIXED JURY OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO CONVICTED SLAYER OF PRIEST

These men and women convicted William Hightower of the murder of the Colma, Cal., priest, Father Patrick Heslin. On the back row, left to right, are R. G. Letts, C. I. McKinney, Seth Cohen, C. M. Doxsee, M. G. Knox and Mrs. Nellie R. Hunter. On the front row left to right are John Rowell, Elise J. Turk, Fred D. Lorton, Mrs. Florence B. Kellogg, T. E. Rose and Mrs. Catherine Donnery. In the insert is William Hightower, the accused.

Although blind, a Canadian ex-soldier recently passed the Canadian civil service examination for employment as a shorthand clerk.

Gets John D.'s Dimes.

What would you do if the richest man in the world gave you two nice, new, shiny dimes.

Five-year-old Virginia Denike, of Hastings, N. Y., who got the dimes from John D. Rockefeller, is going to put them on a ribbon and wear them around her neck. She thinks that money from such a source will act as a lucky charm.

Little Virginia attracted the attention of the venerable oil man by a song.

They were passengers on a ferryboat. Their melodies inspired little Virginia to break into an artless song. Her sweet, high voice made her the center of an admiring group.

Rockefeller, sitting in his auto, smiled as Virginia sang. He was smiling when she finished.

He reached into his pocket and pulled out two new dimes. Then he called to his chauffeur and said:

"Give them to the little girl."

HE HAD HIS DOUBTS

An elderly man was persuaded by one of his sons to go with him to a boxing exhibition.

The son paid for two $2 seats.

"Now, dad," said the son joyfully, "you'll see more excitement for your $2 than you've ever seen in your life before."

The old man grunted.

"I've got my doubts about that," he said gloomily. "Two dollars was all I paid for my marriage license."

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE OPENS

The Buster Brown Shoe store, 122 North Brand boulevard, will open its doors to the Glendale public Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. W. C. Winkler, proprietor, is an experienced shoe man and in selecting the Brown-built shoes, which he will carry exclusively, he feels that he has secured a shoe that will completely fill the needs of the Glendale people.

While this store will specialize in children's shoes, footwear for men and women will also be carried. For the ladies there will be the Barbara Brown shoe, for the men, the Burton Brown shoe and for the children there will be the Buster Brown shoe. Also here will be carried the Maxine shoe for women and the Whitehouse shoe for men. In this stock will be carried the moderate priced shoe costing from $5 to $7.50, while the better grades of shoe, costing as high as $12 and even more, will be a part of the regular stock of this establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Winkler came to Glendale recently from Norborne, Kansas. Two years ago Mrs. Winkler's parents passed the winter in Glendale. So favorably were they impressed with this city that they persuaded their children to come here, just to give Glendale a trial. Now that they have given this city a thorough trial they are regular "whoope" boosters. They claim they are here to stay. Before locating here permanently, Mr. and Mrs. Winkler motored from San Diego to Pasa Robles, finally deciding on Glendale.

TIMES ARE CHANGED

Standing in the aisle of a crowded street car two colored youths engaged in conversation.

"Eph Lightfoot ain't wearin' any silk shirts no more."

"Ah'll say he ain't."

"An' he is shinin' his own shoes, too."

"Ah'll say he is."

"An' he ain't runnin' no flivver no more."

"Ah'll say he ain't."

"An' you 'member dat twenty dollar gold piece he used to wear on his watch chain?"

"Ah'll say I do."

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even firey, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

GRAND JURY GOES AFTER N. Y. HERALD

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Richmond county grand jury today returned a presentment to Judge Tierman at St. George, Staten Island, censuring the publishers, editors and employees of the New York Herald for publishing a list of unsolved murder mysteries in New York City, alleged to be "in great part false and untrue." The presentment followed institution of John Doe proceedings at request of Mayor Hylan and Police Commissioner Enright.

THE LAST STRAW

How can one tell when he has money enough? Is there any simple test that may be applied, any chemical combination of events or incidents that will give the reaction of "enough" in the matter of wealth?

There is. If a man refuses to chase his new straw hat down the street in a high wind, then he is rich enough.

WOULD BUILD TWO FRENCH SCHOOLS

COLUMBUS, Oct. 21.—That Ohio's boys and girls in the public schools aid in raising a fund designed to defray the cost of building two high schools in the devastated regions of France is the request made by Governor Davis. It is planned to present the money and a medal to Marshal Ferdinand Foch, of France, when he visits America early next month.

VIEWS OF A VENDER

"You hear a lot about Easy Street."

"Well?"

"But a man who peddles articles from door to door never finds it."

KEEPING UP WITH HIM

"You ought to have a chauffeur. Can't you afford one?"

"I might afford the chauffeur," replied Mr. Chuggins. "But I couldn't afford the kind of a car he'd want to take his friends out riding in."

SERIES OF SERMONS AT PRESBYTERIAN

During the months of October and November Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will deliver a series of practical Sabbath evening messages which will be of interest to all. The suggested sermon themes are as follows:

"Jehoshaphat, or a Good Man in the Wrong Place," "Joash, or the Bad End of a Good Beginning," "Asa, or the Fatal Failure of a Well Meaning Life," "Renoboam, or the Peril of Ungodliness and Pride," "Ahab, or the Wickedness of Weakness," "Jehu, or Zeal Without Godliness."

These evening services are preceded by an organ recital and song service which has proved to be very popular with the evening audiences.

It is said that the Temple of Solomon, in modern values, cost about $5,000,000,000. Practically the entire manhood of Israel was conscripted to build it.

Glendale Shops Meet the Problem OF How, When and Where to Buy At Home

WHEN MUSIC FORMS A PART of the entertainment offered one's guests, any of the simpler functions, like an afternoon tea, are made successful. I know that your musical friends will delight in that marvelous reproducing piano, THE AMPLICO, which has won such favor through the BARNES SHUCK MUSIC CO., 211 N. Brand boulevard. They will enjoy hearing again the great artist whose playing on the concert stage they remember with a little thrill of pleasure. Or perhaps another whose wonderful interpretations are the stir of the music world, but who cannot be heard in person, for his concerts are given, perchance, in some distant city. And, then, there is the subdued music for the dinner hour, gently and quietly adding charm to any gathering. The Ampico can be made to play as softly as one likes—seeming to exist as an exquisite melody heard from afar. And what could be more beautiful or touching than music heard at twilight, in a room lighted by the glow of a cheery open fire.? At the home of the Ampico in Glendale—Barnes Shuck Music Co., you may hear the world's most famous masters perform with all of their brilliancy of technique, on either the Haines Bros., Franklin or Knabe pianos. Stop in at their attractive store and ask to hear your favorite selection played by one with whose artistry you are acquainted. You'll surely agree with me that there is but one word with which to express the Ampico and that is Magic.

APPLES AND HALLOWE'EN go hand in hand for big, red, juicy apples are quite in keeping with the spirit of the season, it seems to me. So if youre looking for just the sort of apples you can display to best advantage at a seasonable affair, stop in at NUSSBAUM'S GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET, 244 North Brand Boulevard, where they are selling the most delicious eating apples for only 5c per pound. You know Nussbaum's is well known already for their fresh fruits and vegetables, to say nothing of the unusually low prices which prevail.

OH, I'VE WAITED SO LONG, to be able to tell you about the new A. B. C. Washer and, now, at last WASHER WILSON at 140 South Brand Boulevard has received his first shipment of them! This Electric Laundress is really just the machine for the average family and home use—easy of control and operation—so very economical and such wonderful work as it does turn out! You know at Washer Wilson's you can arrange convenient terms with just a small down payment and monthly installments, that, when all's said and done, amount to really less than the monthly laundry bill for some families! And so far as the clothes are concerned, you'll find that garments of the same quality and material will last much longer when skillfully handled by your new Electric Laundress than in the old days when the laundryman returned them with a button missing here and a tear there—or when the washerwoman employed for the day literally "rubbed the life out of them." I hope this Christmas that in every home in Glendale there will be an Electric Washer, either large or small size, for every woman owes it to herself and to her family to insist on having these modern conveniences! But before deciding, do stop in at Washer Wilson's and look over the new A. B. C., there are so many radical changes and decided improvements over the earlier models.

'TWAS JUST THE OTHER DAY that I overheard a woman in one of the stores reply, to the clerk's question about the brand of coffee she preferred. "Oh, it doesn't make any difference. What's the cheapest coffee?" Coffee, the chief beverage of the American home, today, is thus lightly considered. Most housewives don't realize that it is absolutely essential that the coffee which they serve daily on their tables, must be pure to be healthful. The price, considering the health of the family, is a mere detail. But if you'll go to BOOTH'S at 318 East Broadway, there you can buy the very best grades of coffee, guaranteed to be absolutely pure, for Mr. Booth blends it all himself, at prices that represent a great saving! And you will find the flavor quite the most delicious you've ever tasted.

"THEY MELT IN YOUR MOUTH" —it's a phrase that just rings in my ear whenever I think of Quality Doughnuts from the QUALITY DOUGHNUT SHOPPE at 104 W. California avenue. They are as pure as gold, for the ingredients are always of the best and they are made by the latest approved sanitary methods. Call Glendale 220 J and they'll deliver them to you.

MARTHA ALICIA

CLEVER CREPE PAPER DECORations in the much wanted mandarin and black shades for Hallowe'en, you'll find at the GLENDALE PHARMACY, 638 E. Broadway. They also have a dandy selection of attractive Hallowe'en cards and paper napkins—an assortment from which I'm sure you'll be able to choose just what you wish. And as for place cards—for every affair of the year they specialize on dainty hand-painted place cards. Call Glendale 146 or stop in and ask about their prices.

A CONSTANT SOURCE OF JOY, I do believe, to every woman's heart—is a big, roomy basket, capable of holding the soiled clothes for the family, or, in fact, performing any of the little household tasks for which a sturdy, strong basket comes in handy! And these are the sort of baskets you'll find at NEALE & CREGG'S HARDWARE STORE, 107 North Brand Boulevard. Why, you'd never dream there could be so many different styles, sizes and materials as are represented in their basket department! Big, spacious clothes hampers, in a number of shapes, some with convenient covers; then the cheaper split baskets—even the real old-fashioned market baskets and shopping baskets—and the real old-fashioned picnic lunch basket with covered top! And, indeed, baby hasn't been forgotten either, for didn't Mr. Neale show me the cosiest bassinettes? To be sure the usual low prices which prevail throughout Neale & Gregg's Hardware Store are reigning in the basket department, too!

"LAUGHING WATER"—DOESN'T it sound cool and refreshing? And that is the secret of this famous White Rose Spring Water which the INDEPENDENT ICE CO., 106 E. California avenue, is bottling. Not only is it healthful for the entire family—but it is a water that is always satisfying, for it lacks that "flat" taste which is so common in bottled products. Call Glendale 217, and order a bottle.

* * *

SATISFACTION IS GUARANTEED at the BRAND CLEANERS, 217 S. Brand boulevard. And they make a specialty of ladies' work, so don't hesitate about sending the daintiest of evening gowns to them. Their prices, too, are most reasonable.

THERE IS A SUBTLE NOTE of refinement and good taste in distinctly attractive stationery. ARTHUR H. DIBBERN of 121 North Brand Boulevard is showing a charming selection of fine stationery in all of the newest and accepted modes. For a Yuletide remembrance could anything be more appropriate than this constant reminder of a friend's best wishes?

And, speaking of the holiday season, have you given your personal greeting cards any thought as yet? They should be ordered now, for by so doing one has the advantage of a much wider selection and better service. Mr. Dibbern has anticipated your every wish along the engraving line.

A DAINTY BOUDOIR IS THE dream of every woman's heart. No matter how remote the time may be, she is always planning and hoping to fulfill that dream. At HARRY MOORE'S, 304 E. Broadway, you can buy all of the equipment to "do over" the room yourself. For bedroom sets there is nothing better than the Kyanize White enamel which Mr. Moore carries. Kyanize enamel will give you unsurpassed service—and it is so easy to use. They have an entire equipment, brushes and everything, for that "doing over." If you'll stop in and tell them what it is you've wanted, I know they will be more than glad to help you in any way possible. The Kyanize enamels come in desirable and popular shades and considering the service you'll get they are very inexpensive. Nothing could be more delightful than a dainty white enamel or old ivory finish on the woodwork and furniture of your bedroom.

WHO WOULDN'T DELIGHT IN doing up her housework in the morning if she could slip into a gay and comfortable crepe housefrock from SHERROD'S SPECIALTY SHOP for Women and Children, 207 E. Broadway. They are such adorable dresses, fashioned along such becoming lines that Milady need never be discomfited when the doorbell rings and unexpected company drops in. And, the colors, too, are beautiful, in combinations that delight the feminine heart. For prices that range from $3.95 to $6.95, they simply "can't be beat." They have a wide range of sizes, too.

AT THE GLENDALE FURNITURE STORE, at 606-608 E. Broadway, I made an amazing discovery yesterday. For each twenty-five cents of your purchase there you will be given, absolutely free, a coupon for Rogers' Silverware. Of course everyone knows the charming patterns which characterize Rogers silver—and just to think that you can easily get enough coupons for a half dozen teaspoons, forks or knives—or perhaps a whole silver set Next time you've anything in the furniture line to buy, stop in at the Glendale Furniture Store, for their prices are exceptionally reasonable.

FOR INDIVIDUALITY AND DISTINCTION in DRESSMAKING call at "BROOKS' SHOPPE," 123 North Brand boulevard. Mrs. Brooks is now prepared to serve her many customers in the making of their NEW FALL GARMENTS; PLEATING of sports skirts in all the new plaids and stripes; HEMSTITCHING and COVERING fancy butons. She has had years of experience and you are assured of satisfaction. Call and see her before the fall rush.

HALLOWE'EN, WITH THE PREParations for gay parties and festivities, for some strange reason always marks, to me, the beginning of the season for "goodies" in the line of eatables! Hence, when I stopped in at NUSSBAUM'S GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET at 244 North Brand Boulevard yesterday, my first question was, "What have you for Hallowe'en parties?" And Miss Naussbaum told me of such dainties—that really made my mouth water! They haven't forgotten a single thing to make the Hallowe'en party a success from the refreshment stage on. Just a few of the items she mentioned were new walnuts at only 35c a pound (can you imagine it?), and a new supply of Dromedary Golden Dates, without which no party can be complete, at 23c a package. Then in pound packages they have a most tempting assortment of cookies of all flavors at only 40c a package. Ask to see their Special Bishop's Banquet package—it's just what you need.

And the meat department at Nussbaum's is always a joy—for their roasts and meats are of the freshest freshest and absolutely first class. Mr. Kriske is offering you Liberty Steak at 2 pounds for 25c this week, and Legs of Lamb at 25c a pound. And surely for Sunday morning breakfast you'll enjoy the delicious Pork Sausage at only 25c per pound, or if you prefer the choice Eastern Bacon, that's 32c tomorrow.

I'D LOVE TO SEE SOME ONE who'd appreciate a real home get the lovely little five-room house which VANDENHOFF of 205 North Brand Boulevard showed me today! It's on a large lot, that is simply covered with fruit trees of all kinds, and only three blocks from the car line! There is a dandy garage—but best of all, the most wonderful view of the mountains imaginable! The price is only $4,850—and if you pay cash it will be considerably less.

WORST BUFFALO IS KILLED BY OWNER

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 21.—Geronimo, the wickedest old buffalo bull that ever lowered his shaggy head, is dead. Geronimo was owned by Charles Irwin, of the Y-6 ranch. But Geronimo's meanness increased with age. Wire fences meant nothing to him, and the buffalo became a common sight on many ranches. Naturally, ranchmen cursed Geronimo's existence, as their cattle escaped through the gaps in the fences. Reports of badly gored cattle came to Irwin, and one morning a particularly fine bull was found disemboweled. A few hours later, Geronimo appeared at his wallow, his head matted with blood.

And so, on circumstantial evidence, the big buffalo was executed by Irwin. His head, with its wickedly gleaming eyes, hangs on the wall of the living room of the Y-6 ranch house. His hide makes a beautiful rug.

"And his spirit," reads the signboard above his grave, erected by cowboys on the Y-6, "is to be found among the phantom herds of Paradise, where Geronimo, the bison incarnation of the devil himself, has ceased his roaming and fence-walking and treacherous charges, to find happiness in the society of his kind."

TOO FULL FOR UTTERANCE

"When Parson Goodleigh tried to start his flivver he choked the engine off three times in succession."

"Ha! Did he make any remarks appropriate to the occasion?"

"No, he didn't, but he didn't have exactly the same kind of expression on his face he wears when he says, 'Let us pray.'"

MACARONI MAN IS GIVEN HONOR MEDAL

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 21.—In recognition of his services to his countrymen here during the war, the King of Italy has conferred upon A. L. Randazzo, local macaroni manufacturer, the Cross of Chevalier. At the presentation ceremonies, attended by Mayor Henry Kiel and other prominent public men, Roberto de Violini, Italian consul here, was the principal speaker. In behalf of the King, he pinned the medal upon Randazzo.

V. Selvaggi, Italian banker and steamship agent, told how, twenty years ago, Randazzo came to him and asked for aid in finding work. He found work for Randazzo, he said, but the union refused to permit him to work. Randazzo was unionized and took the job, and by working steadily he soon saved enough to establish his macaroni factory.

CORSETS WILL PUT DOCTORS ON SHELF

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 21.—Doctors are going to lose a large number of patients if women keep on discarding "uncomfortable and harmful clothes, as they have been doing in the last few seasons." This is the startling declaration of Dr. Josephine de France, osteopathic physician.

"Corsets alone in the discard," stated Dr. de France, "will lessen the demand for doctors fifty per cent. Decent length short skirts are more comfortable, more sanitary and better in every way than the burdensome germ-catchers we use to sweep the streets with. I don't think the world is going to the bow-wows because women are getting a little more freedom."

"HUMANIZING" THE POSTAL DEPARTMENT

Postmaster General Will H. Hays' determination to "humanize" the postal service is bearing fruit. One of his innovations was to install phonographs in the postoffice buildings of the various cities. Now the clerks distribute mail to the enlivening strains of jazz music and they have been displaying unusual speed. This photograph was made in the general postoffice, New York City.

SOMEBODY'S GOAT HAS BEEN CAUGHT

Have you lost your goat? Someone's goat, a William goat with a bolshevik disposition is at the Glendale stables awaiting his owner. Incidentally William is mighty unpopular with several ladies, according to Officer McLean, city poundmaster.

No one knows where William or Billy Goat came from or where he was going but a woman's voice over the telephone made an agonized appeal to Desk Sergeant Mann Thursday to send a patrolman or maybe two or three patrolmen, to 625 West Lexington and arrest a goat that was terrorizing women. The voice said that there were several women who wanted to come down town shopping but that the goat would not allow them to leave and that as soon as a woman would attempt to leave her door, William, of the bolshevik disposition would lower his head and charge. No fatalities were reported because no one had stopped to argue with the goat.

Officer McLean who is famous as a "goat getter" was detailed to bring in William Goat. He went out to Lexington avenue and found that the report was true. As soon as the officer appeared on the scene "Billy" or William lowered his head and with a defiant "Maaa-aaaaa" charged. Had the charge been successful he would have landed about where Officer McLean buckles his belt—but it failed. Instead of waiting for the attack McLean stepped forward and smacked Billy just south of his horns with a "sap-stick." William went down for the count and when he came to he was tied up, waiting for the poundmaster to call.

LOBSTER SEASON STARTS SAN PEDRO

Lobster season opened last Saturday and Gus Wagenheim of the hardware firm of Neale & Gregg says that plenty of them can be found in the breakwater at San Pedro and along the coast near Redondo Beach. According to Mr. Wagenheim ducks are plentiful at present and local hunters report having shot the limit on several occasions during the past week. Mr. Wagenheim, himself secured the limit on Sunday morning at the lake near Chatsworth.

NEW PHARMACY TO OPEN ON SATURDAY

On Saturday, L. S. Chambers will open one of the finest equipped and well-stocked drug stores in Glendale in the newest business district of the city at West Doran and Columbus avenue. This store will be known as the Columbus Pharmacy and while especially serving the needs of that rapidly growing section it will consider the need of the entire city.

Mr. Chambers is an experienced pharmacist of several years' intensive training, having been head prescription clerk in one of the Owl drug stores in Los Angeles. Later he was successful in the drug business for himself at Phoenix and Peoria, Arizona, coming to Glendale August 10th. The public is invited to the opening next Saturday.

THE RED COW GOES a-HUNTING

By JOHN BARTON

(Copyright, 1921, by The Associated Newspapers.)

No, Nibble Rabbit wasn't one bit s'prised. He wasn't s'prised that Trailer the Hound had changed his mind about saving Tad Coon. Nor he wasn't s'prised that the Red Cow was there in the middle of the Deep Woods. She might be on the wrong side of the fence for a cow, but she was on the right side for poor Tad—that much was certain. So Nibble wasn't s'prised at anything. Because when things get as bad as they possibly can be, something just has to happen.

And happen it sure-ly did! "Tow-row-row!" bayed Trailer. He wasn't stopping for the words to his song, he was just yelping the chorus as if the foxes were already on the rnu and he in full cry after them. He tried to head the way to where he'd heard Tad crying.

But the way the Red Cow galloped through the bushes was a caution. It was mostly luck that she didn't hit a tree for she didn't seem to steer out of the way for anything; she just floundered along with her head wagging and her feet swinging.

Everybody in all the woods knew that some one was coming. Tad forgot his poor handy-paws were cold and stiff—stiff as a buzzer's wings. For it's mighty chilly business hanging on to a clammy willow stem all night long, way up in a tree without leaves enough to keep the wind off you. He shinned up higher yet. And he saw the Red Cow splash through the Wicked Little Brook. "Wa-hoo!" he yelled, dancing with joy on his dangerous perch.

"Mmoo-oo!" the cow roared back. It was such a terrible sound that Trailer crouched out of the way and let her pass. She was shaking her horns and snorting like a runaway steam engine. Up went her tail, but the hairy white brush on the end of it was no flag of truce!

Wowie! Didn't those fox highwaymen change their minds about coon-catching? They ran. They didn't even peek over their shoulders to see who was chasing them. It might have been a bear, or it might have been a lion. They'd have believed anything you had a mind to tell them—if you could fly fast enough to catch up with them. You never could do it on feet!

They ran. And after them came the Red Cow and Trailer the Hound. Oh, 'twas grand to see them! And you'd better believe there were more folks enjoying the sight than just Tad Coon.

Next Story—WHERE DID THE RED COW COME FROM?

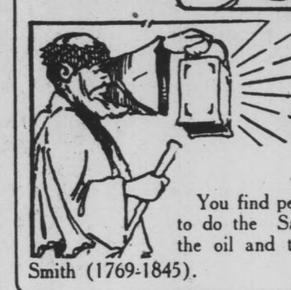
Truths in Epigram



There is nothing so powerful as truth — and often nothing so strange. — Daniel Webster (1782-1852).

You find people ready enough to do the Samaritan, without the oil and twopence.—Sydney Smith (1769-1845).

THE YOUNG CRIMINAL

The problem of what to do with the young criminal never has been solved. There are types of juvenile offenders who by kindness may be set firmly on a proper course. There are others on whom clemency is wasted. There are some to whom arrest and conviction is an episode rather satisfying to the ambition. These look upon a convict as a hero. The tendency to a criminal course may be accounted for in any of a dozen ways. Application of the remedy in individual cases, or of a moral specific, general in its effects, seems beyond human wisdom.

Much has been said about the error of a too-easy probation. Probation may serve a beneficient purpose on behalf of the boy caught in his first offense. When it is bestowed time after time, until the probationary periods overlap, then it becomes a mere marker along the highway leading to the penitentiary.

Just at present a lad is held on the charge of banditry. He does not deny the crime. On the contrary he admits, and glories in it. "As soon as this is over, and I get out, I'll start right over again," he says.

This youthful criminal does not deserve probation. What he needs is an indeterminate sentence of from ten to fifteen years to life. While his mental attitude remains unchanged, it would be a wrong to society to free him.

Whatever may be done to keep boys from entering upon lives of crime, after they have so entered willingly, undeserved clemency is likely to be a most damaging experience.

SIZE OF CONGRESS

The present membership of congress is 435. An effort is being made to increase this to 460. The excuse is made that the increase would be of political advantage to the republican party.

Frankness is the sole merit of the excuse. Before the country at large will sanction the increase a better reason will have to be advanced.

Already the house is so large as to be unwieldy. Already it wastes time because of the difficulty of whipping the members into line when the presence of all is essential. With twenty-five more "asking leave to print" the cost of publishing the Record would be greatly and needlessly swelled.

The salaries of the additional members and their secretaries would amount to $232,500 a year. In addition, the mileage of twenty-five congressman would be a pretty item. There are perquisites that fall to each congressman, the whole making a large aggregate.

The administration openly advocates economy. Spending an estimated sum of half a million yearly for the benefit of worthy gentlemen who desire to serve their country, but by the nature of things, could not render service of value, bears no resemblance to thrift.

If that particular sum must be spent there are better causes to which it may be devoted.

A BLEMISH EFFACED

Baseball had been under a cloud. When crookedness was discovered among players of the Chicago Nationals, the surprise was complete and the shock considerable. That the bad players were turned off in disgrace, and that they were forever barred from professional ball, had not been quite enough to restore faith.

The recent championship games were fought with all the intensity known to any contest. That they were fought absolutely on merit, that each club did its collective best, and each player was eager for an errorless record, are facts clear to any observer. There was no recurrence of any sign of fraud. The games were clean. The series was so close that the integrity of the players was vindicated in the score. Such a nip and tuck affair could not have been deliberate.

Lovers of baseball will be delighted at the showing of this wholesome spirit. Their fears lest the poison of the gamester really had inocculated the sport are gone. The operation that cut off the Chicago crooks was successful.

Next year the public will be eager for another trial for league supremacy. The only suggestion yet heard as to the character of the next series is that it be cut to seven games.

WOMEN AS JURORS

No question as to the fitness of woman to serve as jurors arises for discussion. There never had been reason to suppose that women would not bring to the task as clear judgment as any equal number of men.

In many instances in which the defendant has been a woman and all the jurors masculine, the result of the trial has been farcical. Men have proved themselves the ones more easily swayed by the presence of a pretty face. In countless cases where the charge has been that of murder, and the guilt of the prisoner manifest, acquittal has been quick, a veritable festival of triumph for the lady, who with a smile and a swish of becoming garments has gone radiant from the scene.

A handsome woman charged with murder soon is to come to trial. The intimation is made that she will seek women as jurors. Her lawyer is deemed wise of his kind. He has the record of crowning numerous guilty folk with the halo of innocence. If he should agree with his client in her desire, that will be his and her affair, of course, and yet surmise as to his wisdom already is noticed.

Probably women are not susceptible to the charm of other women. The appeal that makes a male juror lost his heart and then his head is absent. Women sworn to return a just verdict may not be affected by the comeliness of the member of their own sex in the dock. She will not be judged by the fit of her raiment, her modest demeanor, or her manner of wearing a hat.

The public, desiring no outcome but complete justice, would be more willing to trust twelve women than twelve men in the trial under consideration.

SUMMER FURS

Wearing of furs in summer has for several years been regarded as a joke by all save the perspiring wearers. To them it seems to have appeared as a solemn duty. Their discomfort, the fact that the custom was worse than useless and more than silly, did not prevent them from following, moist but faithful, the dictates of fashion.

Now the American Humane association asks that women confine the wearing of fur to the months when it is needed. The request does not seem to be unreasonable. Nevertheless it is based on a misconception. So long as summer furs are indicated in the fashion charts, furs will not be laid aside, though the August sun blaze down upon them. To get at the root of the evil will necessitate a change in the fashion plates. The remarkable individuals who edit these inducements to folly need to be reasoned with.

As to summer furs, an exception almost necessarily has to be made in the case of residents of the Pacific coast. In San Francisco, for example, there is no summer in the sense the word is understood in regions subject to an annual heat term. In many parts of California within a radius of fifty miles of Los Angeles, the evenings are so cool all the year around that one taking an automobile ride after sundown requires a wrap, and fur might be as acceptable as any other.

However, the general attack on the summer fur habit is well founded. The male attending a Fourth of July picnic while clad in a buffalo overcoat, would be deemed eccentric. Yet he would be no more eccentric than his wife, were she there laden with fur. And she might be there so adorned.

H. H. H.

By Dr. Frank Crane.

Harding, Hughes and Hoover, said my old friend, the nameologist, whom I found sitting on a bench in the back yard of the asylum (you see he had got so learned they has to lock him up), these three gentlemen are now running the United States.

They are the three H's.

And what does that signify? I asked.

Harmony, he replied. First of all, harmony. That is also H.

It also connotes good times coming, for H, H, H also stands for Ha! Ha! Ha! which is the common or garden way of expressing joy and glee.

Anything else?

Heaps, he answered. Heaps —also H, you notice.

The colors of these names are interesting. They go with the vibrations, and suggest the odic radiations.

Honest?' said I.

Sure!, said he. Harding reacts blue. The ladies, with deep instinct, already have a Harding blue for their millinery. Blue indicates calm, as ocean, sky, and all that. Blue binds as oceans connect continents. Harding is a getalonger. He gets along, harmonizes, gets the boys together, and all that.

Really! I said.

Oh, yes, said he. Hughes vibrates red. That equals force, feeling and all that. And Hoover vibrates white. He stands for facts. All facts are white. Except the colored ones. He is a pragmatist. He hunts facts, collects facts, likes 'em, ain't afraid of 'em, eats 'em raw.

Don't get excited, I said.

I ain't, he said. In these three H's you have again the triune unity, one in three, three in one.

But, I said, three into one you can't.

Oh, but you can, said he. Man is three in one. So our government now has the complete personality, Hoover mental, Hughes moral, Harding volitional. The old psychological division, intellect, sensibility, and will.

Or, you might say, Head, Heart, Hand—three H's again, you see, and all that.

To be sure, said I.

Further, said he, Harding is a journalist, Hughes a lawyer and Hoover an engineer. Another grand combination. Grand vibrations. Hoover to find out how to do things, Hughes to find out how to do 'em without getting arrested (a lawyer's business), and Harding to get the senate to let him do 'em.

It is a combination glorious as the combined colors, red, white and blue.

He stood up and saluted.

Sit down, I said, and keep cool.

But, most important of all, he said as he sat down, is their combined power of prevention and all that.

What do you mean prevention? said I.

Why, said he, Harding is a politician of long experience, hence he not only is an expert in getting things done, but also in keeping people from doing 'em.

Hughes' training has been in the law, which is a science that shows you how a perfectly plain and simple thing to do cannot be done at all. Law is a science of illegalities, as medicine is a science of diseases.

And Hoover, being an engineer, can show you how a thing, even if Harding shows it to be permissible, and Hughes shows it to be legal, is still impractical.

And why is not doing things of such importance? I asked.

Because, he said, the main business of rulers is to keep government from meddling.

Then the keeper came and led him back to his cell.

THE LISTENING POST

One time there was a scale of real value.
Or a measure of real value, as we choose to say.
But a scale or measure by which exact justice was weighed and measured.

* * *

That is a very rare kind of scale, of course.
Because our human scales of measure and value are all fallible.
Few people agree upon standards.

* * *

The farmer measures value in wheat and corn and potatoes.
Because he produces those things and is familiar with them.
The jeweler is likely to measure values in gold and silver and platinum and diamonds.

* * *

The horse fancier estimates values in horseflesh.
The stockman in cattle and sheep.
The drover in hogs and lard and bacon.
And the orchardist in oranges or walnuts.

* * *

The doctor is likely to estimate values in health.
The banker in estates.
The minister in souls.
All have different notions.

* * *

So a scale of real value among us fallible and differing mortals would be out of the question.
Since the standards do not agree.
If one measure held twenty inches to be a foot and another measure held nine inches to be a foot and another twelve, we should have a lot of trouble agreeing upon how many feet in a yard.

* * *

Of course, there is only one test of real value among men and women:
All around usefulness.
Those who serve best.
Those who make life better and happier for us all.

* * *

A Croesus is not of so much value as a Columbus.
A Caesar is not of significant value compared with a Christ.
The cobbler who makes a pair of dependable and honest shoes is of more value to the world than the wealthy spendthrift who merely makes a fool of himself.

* * *

But to get back to the honest scale:
The measure of real value.
We don't know exactly where it was.
But for the purposes of this Listening Post it was somewhere.
And beside it stood Exact Justice.

* * *

Not with a sword in his hand.
But with a smile on his lips.
And a kindly look in his eyes.

And men and women came past him and stepped upon the scales.

* * *

A man who had felt himself to weigh about two tons in earthly terms, stepped upon the scales of Exact Justice.
And they did not move a feather's weight.
His whole earthly bulk and weight made no visible impression.

* * *

And he was amazed:
"I know I weigh more than that," he said angrily.
"The scales never make a mistake," said Exact Justice.

* * *

"But look at me," said the man who thought he weighed two tons.
"I am looking at you," said Exact Justice. "But the scales determine, not what you think you are or what you look to be. They determine WHAT YOU ARE."

* * *

Still the man protested.
And Exact Justice said:
"What did you ever do for anybody but yourself?"
And the man pondered:
"Is it not right to look out for yourself?" he demanded.

* * *

"The scales determine your value to the world," said Exact Justice. "You are of no value except to yourself. Consequently you don't weigh a feather's worth. Step down please."
And a little fellow who didn't think he weighed over ninety pounds stepped on the scales.

* * *

And they went up and down with a bang.
He outweighed the two-ton man's bulk fifty to one.
"What's your business?" said Exact Justice.
"I am a humble citizen," said the man "and all I have done is to work hard and raise a family and lend a hand to my neighbor when I could."

* * *

And so they came one by one.
And a great many who thought they weighed heavily weighed only a featherweight.
And a great many who felt humble and small weighed much.

* * *

And as each of the ones who weighed only a featherweight, but who thought he weighed a ton, stepped from the scales, there was a queer squeak and report, and immense bulks collapsed like bursting balloons.

* * *

And Exact Justice smiled again.
And watched the procession pass by the scales with a kindly look on his face.
And a smile on his lips.

SONGS OF THE POETS

Little Things.—By Julia Fletcher Carney (1823-1908)

Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean
And the pleasant land.

So the little moments,
Humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages
Of eternity.

So our little errors
Lead the soul away
From the path of virtue,
Far in sin to stray.

Little deeds of kindness
Little words of love,
Help to make earth happy
Like the heaven above.

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

KEEPING FAITH

[Milwaukee Sentinel]

Disarming our country is in direct response to a public demand, based on protests against the burden of taxes and powerful sentiment favorable to disarmament. It would seem that too little attention has been given the achievements of congress and the Harding administration in this matter. Certainly any attempt to create the impression, either at home or abroad, whether for political or other reasons, that this country is trying to lead in the armament race falls before the facts. Reduction of the navy personnel, along with the huge slash in naval appropriations, furnish sufficient proof of that statement.

Keeping faith with ourselves and practicing what we preach, Uncle Sam's delegates will attend the disarmament meeting with clean hands. America has started to disarm before she asked other nations to do likewise. We have set an example for other nations to follow, to the end that the danger of war shall be minimized.

* * *

"NOW IS THE ACCEPTED TIME"

[The Continent]

If the approaching conference of the great powers at Washington, summoned to obtain an international agreement stopping enlargement of navies, does not do what it is called to do, its failure will make the darkest day that civilization has yet seen—a day not merely of disappointment but of grim hopelessness.

Mankind today understands war in its costs, its terror and its wickedness as no earlier generation could. If now, spurred by the horried memories of the seven years just gone by, the world cannot muster the will and the wisdom to eliminate war from the policy of nations, when can there come a time capable of delivering humanity from this immemorial curse?

For disarmament and peace, "now is the accepted time."

And any nation, be it America or any other, whose statesmen became responsible for failure in the objects of the Washington conference, causing it to adjourn without accomplishing the proposed agreement, would incur indelible historic disgrace.

It behooves therefore each patriotic American to resolve solemnly for himself that he will omit nothing within his power to create and support a popular opinion from which the American representatives in the conference must take notice that they dare not fail.

Comment on the News

By HENRY JAMES

There is a habit of abusing the railroads. Blame for all high prices, all industrial ills, is tossed to the shoulders of the railroad manager. Doubtless the load is irksome. Doubtless it does not belong where it has been thrust by an irritated and not well informed public. The railroads, in truth, seem to be between the devil and the deep blue sea. They are private concerns the officials of which are not at liberty to direct them. They take orders from the government. It is by the government their rates are fixed. Yet with the rates high as they are, the roads are not earning dividends, or not earning the 6 per cent that was supposed to be permitted.

* * *

There have been great railroad men in this country. Hill and Harriman did more than build or improve railroads. They were makers of empire. But they had a free hand. They were not instructed that rates must be kept down to a certain level, but they kept them down, and made money for themselves and the stockholders. For many years the railroads of the United States, giving better than European service, charged less than European rates. This is all a matter of record. The American roads opened territory, carried prosperity to regions that had been remote; prospered with the people. The roads no longer prosper. A sort of blight seems to have fallen upon them. What is it? Government domination is the answer of some observers. They seem to make out a strong case.

* * *

Before accepting this verdict in full, it is but fair to remember that while railroad rates were arbitrarily fixed, the cost of the materials that the railroads were forced to purchase, had not been fixed. The 50-cent tie on which rails formerly rested, has to be replaced by the $2 tie, of inferior quality at that. A similar advance was manifest in countless other materials. When half a million freight cars rust on side tracks, the fact may be observed that the railroads are sharing in business conditions. Cessation of manufacturers means cessation of traffic for carriers. On the other hand, the economists who ascribe the predicament of railroads to the government, have much upon which to base their conclusions.

* * *

How is any concern to be held responsible for results if it is forbidden to attempt to shape results? This seems to be exactly the fix the railroads are in. They are ordered by government authority to do this and to do that. When the effect is disastrous they are censured. They had failed to do that which they had been expressly inhibited from doing.

* * *

In discussing even such a wicked institution as a railroad, and such a monster as a railroad manager, it is well to be fair.

* * *

Hopes abide that the great strike will not eventuate. Perhaps the very danger of it will be enough to avert it. No body of men could desire to precipitate such a crisis as would ensue if the employes carried out their threat. The grievances the men may have it is impossible even to discuss while their attitude remains that of hostility, not merely to the railroads, but to the public.

* * *

A tiny thread of wire unheedingly left by a boy caused the death of a man who unwittingly touched it. It caused painful injuries to others. The wire had been used as an attachment to a kite. When the lad abandoned his pastime the discarded wire came into contact with a large wire carrying heavy voltage. The tiny thread connected the large wire with the ground, wet grass making the connection that proved instantly fatal. Death comes in many curious ways, and accidents are peculiar. Yet seldom is the combination so strange as in this instance.

* * *

Demand for recognition of Mexico comes from many quarters. There has been no explanation of the neglect to heed them, for most of the proponents of recognition are highly respectable. Ordinarily they would have a definite influence, but this time they seem to count not at all. If this is due to more of the secret diplomacy, often and unfavorably mentioned, the gentlemen responsible probably will have cause for regret later.

* * *

A speaker connected with a concern employing many men expresses regret at the "instability of labor." By this he means the tendency of the wage earner to quit his job. Perhaps his chances for observation have been superior. So far as the ordinary citizen has the chance to observe the wage-earner, he finds that useful person fearful lest he lose a job, or without a job, and hustling to find one.

SEVENTY CASES FOR COURT SATURDAY FOR SPEEDING

Smooth Pavement Temptation Enriches Eagle Rock City Chest

Saturday is "Reckoning Day" in Jduge Cruzan's court. A casual observer, would wonder what excuse the city could offer for providing an able judge, a city marshal and a lot of law books, a jail and other necessaries for handling the criminally inclined, but read on and see why.

Eagle Rock has as good paved boulevards as are to be found anywhere in this happy land of sunshine and flowers, and the air is especially invigorating when the automobilist reaches the hills along the particular boulevard which passes Eagle Rock. Instantly he throws back his chest and gives "her more gas," and the result—well, he lands in Judge Cruzan's court for a reckoning. If he was "over-joyed" and traveled 30 miles Judge Cruzan looks upon him with one eye and assesses him a ten dollar william, but if he has gone 35 or 40 miles—no telling what will happen—it is sure to be a heavy fine with a jail sentence if the case is aggravated.

Well, anyway, there are just 70 cases to come up before Judge Cruzan tomorrow, and his mill starts grinding promptly at 10:30. When he will finish he does not know himself, nor does he seem to care so long as he is doing his duty. Long live Judge Cruzan. We need more like him.

ELDER B. GREEN IS FINED AFTER TRIAL

Elder B. Green, a sable descendant of Ham, was arrested for interfering with an officer a few days ago, and after he had studied the matter over carefully he decided a jury trial was the only thing to get him out of a serious scrape. The jury trial resulted in a verdict of guilty and he took an appeal to the superior court. Green, it is alleged, was seriously interfering with Officer Williams in the performance of his duty, and the jury decided that a fine of $25 and a two days' jail sentence would suffice.

MANY TAKE TRIP TO NEARBY OIL FIELDS

Many people are taking advantage of the free trips to the oil fields given by the Garden Grove Oil and Land Company. The big touring car leaves the Eagle Rock drug store at 10:45 a. m. daily, except Monday, and the trip is absolutely free, including a fine lunch. Wonderful development is being made in oil at Huntington Beach, Long Beach and other points and a trip to these fields is certainly worth while. Read the full details of the trip in an advertisement on this page.

Pavlova Pleads Starved Children Need Much Aid

LONDON, Oct. 21.—"Death from starvation—the most terrible of all sufferings is at the present moment threatening my compatriots—men, women and, worst of all, children. In the name of common humanity let us come to their aid," says Anna Pavlova, Russian dancer.

"My dancing you have always appreciated, and as it is an art typical of my country I can in the name of my country and my art appeal to you and expect from you appreciation for my latest effort to succor those of my country who are in dire distress at the moment—particularly the children. It would give me a deep and lasting sense of satisfaction to feel that the link which exists between the public and me has been welded into a union for the saving of the hundreds of little human lives. My work has already begun, but the suffering of the little ones in my country are now almost beyond description. More help—much more help—is needed."

COURT LITIGATION IS BIG LOTTERY

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 21.—Litigation is a lottery, pure and simple, according to F. W. Lockhart, of Benton. For disturbing the peace Lockhart was fined $5 in Justice Court. Not satisfied with his sentence, he appealed the case to the Circuit Court. "Twenty-five dollars and costs," was the decision that ended the case and caused Lockhart to conclude that litigation is a lottery.

BUILDING CAMPAIGN

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21.—Tentative plans for speeding up a building campaign which will result in the expenditure of approximately $6,000,000 by the state in the construction of new buildings and the improvement of others among the numerous state institutions, have been made by the state board of control and the state department of public works.

HIGH SCHOOL SITES TO BE DISCUSSED BY SCHOOL PATRONS

Mass Meeting Called Tuesday at High School Auditorium

The directors of the Glendale Union High School district have called a meeting of the people of the district for Tuesday, October 25, at the Glendale High school auditorium. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the matter of selecting a site for the new high school and to call an election for bonds to construct the building. Notices have been posted at the public library at Eable Rock and throughout the district, calling the meeting. Citizens of Eagle Rock are very much interested in the matter of the selection of the high school site, and are urged to turn out in numbers and express their wishes. The sentiment of Eagle Rock people seems to be for locating the school near the Verdugo road, and many would prefer that the school be located even nearer Eagle Rock. However, the majority, it is stated, would be well pleased with the Verdugo site. It is believed by many that it will not be long before Eagle Rock will be large enough to have a high school of its own, if given a slice of the adjoining communities, but that time has not yet arrived, and all are interested in seeing the high school located as near our thriving city as possible.

READING DENTIST ARRESTED IN CITY

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—Dr. J. M. Gartman, dentist of Reading, Pa., is under arrest here charged with being the head of a nation-wide whisky ring. Gartman is alleged to have engineered the distribution of $100,000 worth of forged certificates for the withdrawal of whisky from government warehouses. The state of Pennsylvania is said to have been flooded with these forgeries. Gartman will be returned to the east to face charges preferred by Barney Sheer, Morris Knoblauch and other residents of Reading who claim to have been victimized by his operations. Federal charges will also be preferred against him.

LADDIE COMPLETES THIRD PICTURE

Mrs. F. J. Benneson, 245 East Park avenue, has just completed the third moving picture with her famous and handsome Scotch Collie, Laddie. This will be Laddie's best one yet, it is stated, and is entitled "No Barking." The second picture, "In For Life," has just been released. "Laddie" will surely keep you spell bound. The Christy Comedy studio at Hollywood is delighted with this wonderful dog.

MAKE YOUR CONTRIBUTION

A call is being made for gifts of fruit and vegetables for the Los Angeles Children's Orphans' Home. Those who can contribute are asked to leave their offering at Dr. Ellison's office over the Eagle Rock drug store. This is a most worthy cause, and it is hoped generous contributions will be made.

SELIG TO OPEN STORE

Sam Selig will open a grocery and market in Eagle Rock as soon as the big brick building, corner Central and Colorado is completed. This is one of the good evidences of the rapid growth of the town—the big stores will not locate in a dead town or one that does not give promise to great growth.

VAUDEVILLE WILL FEATURE AT T. D. & L.

The T. D. and L. theater tonight and tomorrow is presenting a huge double program of Meiklejohn and Dunn vaudeville, the feature picture, "Such a Little Queen," starring Constance Binney and another eventful chapter of "Miracles of the Jungle"—all without raise in the usual prices. Attention is directed to the fact that three shows of vaudeville are given daily—2:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

The Pantages headline act. "Heartstrings" presented by Herbert Bethew and company, is the stellar attraction on this week's program. This is the story of a little waif who brings joy and happiness to a married couple following a series of comedy situations.

Second, only in position on the bill, comes Ted Shawn's newest production, "The Lytell Twins," presenting a series of beautiful and colorful dance creations. In their presentation of the dance numbers they are assisted by Harry Losei. This is one of the best dance acts of the present vaudeville season. The attraction had its premier last week at the Pantages Los Angeles theater and is shortly to tour the entire circuit.

Others who will amuse and entertain on the bill are: The Novelty Trio, composed of Hawaiian instrumentalists and melodists, considered one of the most novel Hawaiian acts on the stage today; Lee and Sam—two boys who sing and play and add a lot of comedy with their stories and another novel act.

WHITE MULE FOUND VISITING CHURCH

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., Oct. 21.—Even the sanctity of the Church holds no scruples for the liquor-law violators. Deputies raided an old church near here and arrested a man and a woman, both intoxicated. A quantity of "white mule," part of which had been imbibed by the arreted parties, was confiscated. Equipment for manufacturing the "mule" also was taken.

BE BEAUTIFUL IF YOU DANCE ENOUGH SAYS PROPHET

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Dance and be beautiful. It is the latest London cult.

Mr. Edward Scott is the new prophet, and the book of the gospel is his book, "Dancing for Strength and Beauty."

But one may also dance and be ugly, naturally, considering the wide assortment of contortions to be selected from. It stands to reason, the prophet infers, that all dances do not make one beautiful. It's this way:

"Dancing of a superior order, renascent dancing, combining the elegance of the ancient Greeks with the virility of the sixteenth to eighteenth century ideals, does actually tend to improve the looks of those who practice it.

"Dances that produce exhilaration, like the genuine waltz, tend unmistakably to soften the features and brighten the facial expression of the dancer."

But, above all, be not gymnastic.

However proficient and graceful you may become by gymnastic training and constant practice it will never admit you to the ranks of the beauty cult. Severe strain tends to "harden the features."

And certainly Beauty is not to be wooed "by practicing some of the decadent wriggling movements that recently disgraced our ballrooms."

The real, triple-riveted answer is the minuet. That is the "dance par excellence best adapted for the promotion of grace and beauty."

And then the catch—there's always a catch in such things somewhere. All the world cannot run out and acquire grace and beauty instantly tomorrow night.

For the real minuet, the one guaranteed to cure all comers of homeliness, isn't danced any more; it isn't known, and few there are who can teach it.

BULL WITH RABBIES NEARLY GETS BOYS

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Oct. 21.—William Daniels admits to-day that he is as much opposed to Hereford bulls as Ireland is to Johnny's "bull." And William is in favor of "fits." Because an angered Hereford threw a fit Daniels' two small sons are alive to-day. The two boys, ten and twelve, were attacked by an irate bull. With the youths lying on the ground, the infuriated animal was preparing to gore them to death when he suddenly was seized with a fit. Frothing at the mouth, the bull was slain by a veterinary surgeon, who declared the animal had hydrophobia.

ANOTHER CHANCE TO SEE FAKE FIGHT

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight and Jess Willard will fight to the finish in Jersey City next July 4, according to Tex Rickard. Rickard said the first steps have been taken to amend the New Jersey boxing law to allow a referee's decision and that he believes decision fights will be allowed by the time the big bout is staged.

SEIZE AUTOMOBILE CLARA SMITH GORMAN

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Clara Smith Gorman, formerly Clara Smith Hamon, acquitted of the slaying of Jake Hamon, is no longer in possession of her $2,500 automobile.

Yesterday Captain A. C. Jewell of the civil department of the sheriff's office received an attachment for the car in the case of W. E. Weathers vs. Clara Smith Gorman and John Gorman, her husband. A deputy sheriff was detailed to find the car, which he did, placing it in a Hollywood garage in the custody of the sheriff.

The attachment was said to be for payment of the car, which was said to have been purchased on April 25.

Clogged Air Passages Open at Once—Nose and Throat Clear.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membranes. Instant relief.

How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or snuffing. Head colds, and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Advt.

POWERS WANT U. S. TO DO MOST IN ARMS PLAN

Believed in Capital, British-Japs Will Seek Least of All

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Possibility that the United States will be asked to do most of the actual disarming when the nations gather for the discussion of that subject in November is foreseen to-day by close observers here. This forecast is based on the understanding that the basis for such negotiations will be the several nations' apparent strategic requirements, instead of a so-called trading agreement. Under this latter curtailment might be on a ship-for-ship basis, but on the former ground experts see complications arising.

Supporting their contention that the United States may find most of the disarming forced on herself, the observers here point out that both Japan and Great Britain, major participants in the forthcoming parley, are maritime powers. They depend on the sea for their commercial and national life. Accordingly they will both be likely to object to any great reduction in their actual power at sea. On the other hand, the point will be made that the United States is a self-contained country and thus will only need sufficient naval forces to protect her coasts.

Of all the nations involved, it is stated by competent authorities here, Japan probably has most to gain or lose from the parley. Her actual navy is powerful on paper, and while its potential force is not discounted, it is well known that Japan's finances make any naval race a critical problem. Thus, if England and the United States can be persuaded into a curtailment, Japan, while not actually having to drop many of her own real ships, will be rid of just so much costly competition.

At the same time Japan, folowing the diplomatic tactics she used at Versailles, when by constant objections and bickerings she forced concessions from the other nations, may be able to wring official sanction from the same Powers of her course in China and Siberia.

KU KLUX RAN BAD MAN LOSES MONEY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 21.—That horse Ku Klux, who runs most of the time at Belmont and frequently gets into the money, has broken up a happy home here. Take it from Adolph Koch, who seeks divorce from his wife, that horse, Ku Klux, is a "bad actor." Mrs. Koch, according to her husband, "plunked" $3,500 of hubby's money on the animal. She lost. In addition to playing that horse Ku Klux, Mrs. Koch kissed a "certain street-car conductor," alleges the petition asking separation.

COUNCIL PARENTS FOR EVERY VILLAGE

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Council of Parents in every town, whose one object would be to look after the welfare of the people, is the desire of Mrs. Knights-Bruce, widow of the late bishop of that name. Such a council, says Mrs. Knights-Bruce, should be composed of mothers, fathers, men and maidens, who would see to the provision of, besides good housing, proper play spaces for the children and beautiful buildings for music and dancing.

SOMEBODY CHUCKED AUTO OVER CLIFF

AMHERST, Oct. 21.—An auto reported stolen from Frank Justin, of Lorain, was found at the bottom of a 150-foot cliff at Mill Hollow, on Vermillion river. No bodies were found in the debris. Sheriff Backus expressed belief that the car was deliberately run over the precipice, or that the occupants lost control of the machine and jumped to safety ahead of the crash.

NORMALCY BACK AS POSSE LEARNS TRUTH

POPLAR BLUFFS, Mo., Oct. 21.—Burglars are such oddities at Harris, near here, that a posse of armed men quickly gathered in the public square following an explosion supposedly from the blowing of a safe. At hectic pace the posse searched the business district. "Hear my tire blow out?" queried a man in overalls, unperturbed by the excitement, when the searchers passed his car. Then normalcy returned.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready to use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 21.—The three months' old baby of Mrs. Signe Swanson of Burke, Idaho, was smothered in a lounge which painters closed, thinking it contained only bedding.

SACHET KITTEN IS SHOT BY SHERIFF

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., Oct. 21.—It looked like a cat. But it wasn't. The night was balmy and without breeze as the beautiful little creature moseyed into the Wabash baggage room here. Sheriff Waddill "plunked" a couple of bullets into the "critter." A traveling man, who nearly fainted at the shots, learned that the animal was a skunk. Moral: Pretty furs do not make pretty odors.

NATURE'S HARMONIES

"Oh, what heavenly music," exclaimed the fair summer boarder. "I didn't know you had jazz bands out here in the country."

"We ain't got no kind of a band," replied the farmer. "That noise you hear is pigs calling for their supper."

SPECTACLE CASE IN TEDDY'S POCKET FOR POSTERITY

Saved His Life When Bullet From Insane Man's Guns Tries to Kill

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Posterity will have an opportunity to examine the typewritten manuscript and spectacle-case which Theodore Roosevelt carried in his pocket on the night when he was shot in Milwaukee in 1912. Those articles are now in the possession of the Roosevelt Memorial Association, No. 1 Madison avenue, New York City, and will be kept for all time as an evidence of Theodore Roosevelt's courage and robust vitality.

It will be remembered that on the night when Colonel Roosevelt was shot he had on a heavy military overcoat and carried his spectacle-case and the fifty-page manuscript of the speech which he was to deliver in his right-hand coat pocket. To this circumstance the Colonel undoubtedly owed his life, for the bullet, after penetrating the heavy overcoat, plowed through the manuscript and spectacle-case and imbedded itself in the Colonel's body just under the fourth rib.

"Don't Hurt Him!"

The man who shot him was John Flammang Schrank, an insane liquor dealer, who was later committed to the Hospital for the Insane at Oshkosh, Wisconsin. After shooting the Colonel the man was set upon by a mob, who would undoubtedly have killed him had it not been for the timely intervention of the man he had tried to assassinate. "Don't hurt him!" shouted the Colonel to the mob that was trying to get at the would-be assassin; "bring him to me." Then, turning to the detectives who had pounced upon Schrank, he said: "Officers, take charge of him and see that there is no violence done him."

Half an hour later the Colonel was delivering his famous speech in the Milwaukee Auditorium in which he said: "It takes more than one bullet to kill a Bull Moose." The Colonel talked for an hour and twenty minutes, with the bullet still in his body, before giving his doctors an opportunity to examine him. The next day he was taken to the Mercy Hospital, in Chicago, where he stayed until all danger from his wound was dissipated.

More Relics on Hand.

The manuscript and spectacle-case are only two of the interesting Roosevelt relics now in the possession of the Roosevelt Memorial Association. Others are coming in by every mail, in answer to the appeal of the Association to "remember T. R. on his birthday" by making some contribution to its collection of Roosevelt relics. It is planned ultimately to house these relics in the permanent headquarters of the Association, which will probably be either in Oyster Bay or Washington. There they will be available for future historians and for the inspiration of all who feel inclined to visit this historic spot.

The manuscript and spectacle-case were presented to the association by Mrs. Roosevelt, who at the same time gave the Association three hundred photographs of the Colonel and his pocket diary of the Spanish-American war, which was hitherto unpublished.

KILLING FIGURES GIVEN BY FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Statistics just compiled by the army medical service of the Ministry of War reveal the great advancement in the art of killing during the great war. The statistics show that the proportion of men killed as compared to the total losses was 18.36 per cent—that is, about one man killed of every four hit—which is much greater than any previous war.

Likewise, the figures show the vast advancement in the science of hygiene. The number dead from disease and sickness is only about one-sixth the number killed by enemy fire. The final figures of the French losses are given as follows:

Killed by enemy fire	674,700
Died of wounds	250,000
Missing, presumed killed by fire	225,300
Dead of disease	175,000
Total dead	1,325,000

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally if You Eat Meat Regularly

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they slugishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Investment Questions

Question—What is a "Cumulative Stock?"

Answer—Preferred Stocks usually carry the provision that if it should ever be necessary to omit the payment of a dividend on the stock, then the omitted dividend or dividends accumulate as an obligation that must be paid before any dividend may be paid on the Common Stock. That is, all unpaid dividends on a "Cumulative" Preferred Stock must be paid before it is legal to pay any dividend on the Common Stock—a feature of great importance as extra security.
